ARRESTS, CITATIONS

March 10

• Pendleton police arrested Erik Estrada, 42, for second-degree disorderly conduct and two counts of felon in possession of a weapon.

March 11

• Milton-Freewater police arrested Felix Romero, 26, of Milton-Freewater, for first-degree criminal trespass, first-degree burglary, harassment and felony strangulation.

Milton-Freewater police reported the arrest was due to an incident that occurred Dec. 5, when Romero entered the apartment of a 23-year-old woman he knew and strangled her in front of their 5-year-old child.

Police reported an arrest that was not possible at that time.

But on March 11, police responded to the victim's apartment on a call that she suspected the person ringing her doorbell was Romero. Milton-Freewater police reported officers found Romero there and arrested him without incident.
