

Taste of Nordic returns to Anthony Lakes

By Lisa Britton

Go! Magazine

NORTH POWDER — A day of skiing while sampling food and drinks awaits visitors to Anthony Lakes Mountain Resort for the eighth annual Taste of Nordic event on Sunday, March 20.

"Anthony Lakes is very excited to bring back the Taste of Nordic event this year," said Chelsea Judy, marketing director. "After a two-year hiatus, this family-friendly event will highlight our local craft food and beverage makers. Come up, ski, eat, drink and have a great time!"

From 11 a.m.-3 p.m., vendors will set up along the cross-country trails to serve food and beverages.

Confirmed vendors include Prodigal Son Brewing (Pendleton), Side A Brewing (La Grande), Barley Brown's (Baker City), The Cheese Fairy (Baker City), Copper Belt Winery (Baker City), Glacier 45 Distillery (Baker City), Sweet Wife Baking (Baker City),

Travel Baker County/Contributed photo

Food and drink establishments from around Eastern Oregon will set up at Anthony Lakes Mountain Resort for the Taste of Nordic event Sunday, March 20.

Ten Depot Street (La Grande), The Lone Pine Cafe (Baker City) and North 7 Brewing (Baker City).

Tokens cost $4 each or seven for $25. A trail pass and 10 tokens is $50; two trail passes and 20 tokens is $105.

Tokens can be purchased at Anthony Lakes starting March 17 at the Nordic Outpost, ticket booth, retail shop and Starbottle Saloon. On the day of the event, tokens are sold at the main lodge, Nordic Outpost and along the trails.

TASTE OF NORDIC

Local eateries and breweries will set up tables along the cross-country trails at Anthony Lakes Mountain Resort on Sunday, March 20, 11 a.m.-3 p.m.

Tokens will be sold at the ski area on the day of the event. For information, visit anthonylakes.com.

Taste of Nordic is an event for all ages. Those 21 and older must have a wristband prior to consuming alcoholic beverages. ID checks will be on the day of the event at the above listed locations.

For more details, visit anthonylakes.com.

NORDIC SKIING

Anthony Lakes has 30 kilometers of groomed Nordic trails. For information about rentals, or to check out the map of trails, go to anthonylakes.com/nordic-skiing/.

45TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION!

1977

March

2022

ART
CENTER
EAST

To learn more about anniversary events
happening in March, visit:

ARTCENTEREAST.ORG