EO-11858 30-Day Comment Period
Opportunity to Comment on the Proposed Pomeroy Danger Tree and Fire Salvage project.

The Forest Service, Umatilla National Forest, Pomeroy Ranger District, is preparing an Environmental Assessment for the Pomeroy Danger Tree and Fire Salvage project. The project would remove danger trees and hazard trees jeopardizing public health and safety along Forest Service roads and within developed recreation sites; restore portions of the landscape burned by wildfire by initiating reforestation; and recover forest economic value and benefits through salvage, generating revenues to support the accomplishment of project objectives. The project is located approximately 20 miles south of Pomeroy, WA; in the area northeast of the Wenaha-Tucannon Wilderness.

Information about the proposed action is available for review on the Forest Service website at <https://go.usa.gov/xzEJ6>. Questions regarding this proposed action should be directed to the project lead, Lindsay Lockard at 509-522-6043.

The purpose of this comment period is to provide an opportunity for the public to provide early and meaningful participation on the proposed action prior to a decision being made by the Responsible Official. There will be no other designated comment period. The Forest Service is combining scoping with the legal notice and opportunity to comment, as described in 36 CFR §218.24. Please note that the district is requesting an emergency situation determination (ESD) for the project as provided for in 36 CFR § 218.21. If an ESD is granted, the proposed action will not be subject to the predecisional objection process and implementation may proceed when the decision is documented in a Decision Notice.

Comments concerning this action will be accepted for 30 calendar days following the publication of this notice in the East Oregonian. The publication date in the East Oregonian is the exclusive means for calculating the comment period for this analysis. Those wishing to comment should not rely upon dates or time frame information provided by any other source.

The regulations prohibit extending the length of the comment period. It is the responsibility of persons providing comments to submit them by the close of the comment period.

Comments can be submitted online at <https://go.usa.gov/xzEJ6>. Written comments should be mailed to Susan Piper, Pomeroy District Ranger, 71 West Main, Pomeroy, WA 99347.
