games, with a nonleague loss to eventual state champion Crane in the middle of the run.

Nixyaawii ran into a couple of tough teams at state in Country Christian and Jordan Valley, but Bronson's play earned her second team all-tournament honors.

"Her basketball IQ is so high that we worked together really well," BadWarrior said. "She comes from a long line of athletic family members. She runs everyday before school, and shoots baskets before school. She wants to be great. She is a rare breed."

Also named to the OOL first team for Nixyaawii was Mersayus Hart, while Kyella Picard was named to the second team. Sistine Moses was selected to the honorable mention team.

OOL boys

Regular-season and district champion Nixyaawii had four players earn all-league honors, including two named to the first team.

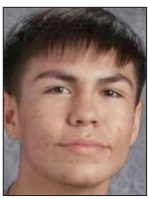

Sophomore Baron Moses and junior Aaron Barkley were first-team picks for the Golden Eagles, who finished the season 24-8 and earned a sixth-place finish at the 1A state tournament. Moses led Nixyaawii second team, while 6-foot-5 junior Coyote Jackson (8.9 points, 5.6 rebounds) was an honorable mention selection.

Moses and Abrahamson were named to the state tournament second team.

points, 4 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 1.7 steals a game.

"Ulises' ability to be able to shoot the 3 ball, yet able to get to the rim, made him one of the hardest guys to match up against," Bow said. "With his ability to play inside out, we were able to run different sets for him, giving him an opportunity to either pull defenders out or use his size to stay inside. His ability to score in 1-on-1 situations made him a tough guy to leave alone with just single coverage."

Otteson:

Haguewood said Otteson has been eager to learn, and has picked things up quickly.

"For Pilot Rock, it's hard to lose a player like that," Haguwood said. "He might have changed schools, but he didn't change his level of commitment. There's a difference catching a 92-mph fastball, than a 70-mph fastball. It is not an easy thing to do. He's learning every day. He is a good solid player. We have multiple catchers at the varsity level, and that's a good problem to have. Andrew is a great defensive catcher, and Jace has strengths as well."

The hardest part of the learning process for Otteson has been adjusting the speed of the pitches, and the variety of pitches that come across the plate.

"My swing was not very developed coming into Pendleton, and my pitch recognition was not that good," Otteson said. "They have helped me a lot. It's fun, and it's challenging. I love competing. It is all about the work ethic."

In addition to playing baseball at Pilot Rock, Otteson played summer ball with the TC Warriors in the Tri-Cities the past two years. He said he has learned valuable lessons from each team he has played for.

"We got to play a lot of challenging teams," he said. "It was fun. Tri-Cities is filled with D-I athletes."

As a freshman, Otteson was a pitcher for Pilot Rock, as well as a shortstop and catcher.

"I'm a utility player," he said. "I have caught travel ball since I was 13. I'm pretty comfortable back there."

From the diamond to the gridiron

While baseball is Otteson's favorite sport to play, he does love a good game of football.

He has gotten to know the football players through their morning workouts.

"I have loved the group of kids," he said. "The junior class is a tight group. They are friendly, funny and great students. It's a great group to be a part of."

This past fall at Pilot Rock, Otteson was named to the Special District 2 all-league team as a first-team quarterback. He threw for 1,122 yards and 21 touchdowns, and ran for 360 yards and three touchdowns for the Rockets. He also played linebacker.

As a freshman, he played fullback, receiver and linebacker.

With football season still a few months away, Otteson said he doesn't know how he will fit into coach Erik Davis' game plan.

"I will do whatever it takes to help the team win," he said.

Pendleton has had a bit of good luck when it comes to football players coming in from Pilot Rock.

Otteson's transfer comes on the heels of Nixyaawii's Tyasin Burns' departure from Pilot Rock because the two teams were no longer allowed to co-opt for football.

Burns had an impressive senior season for the Bucks. He was named a 5A-Special District 1 first-team safety and a second-team running back.

Jennifer Flores (6 points, 4 rebounds) was named to the honorable mention team.

In three games at the state tournament, Shelby averaged 12 points, a tournament high 11.3 rebounds and 2.3 steals. She also shot a tournament high 57.7% from the field. She was named to the 2A all-tournament second team, and was the Moda Health Player of the Game for all three of the Tigers' games.

Masterson, a senior, led the Mustangs (10-13) with nine points, seven rebounds and three steals a game.

Weston-McEwen junior Dalana Pickard was named to the second team. She averaged 7.1 points, 3.5 rebounds and one steal a game for the TigerScots (9-15).
