Pamela Jane Patnode

November 28, 1954 - March 19, 2022

Pamela Jane Patnode left this Earth and entered into glory to spend eternity with her precious Savior on March 19, 2022.

Pam was born on Nov. 28, 1954, to Edward and Doris Snodderly in Hawthorne, California. Pam spent her early years in Los Angeles County until her dad decided he did not want to raise her in the big city and moved the family to a small farm in Lostine, Oregon. After graduation, Pam attended BMCC where she played on the volleyball team, winning several championships.

Pam's lifelong career in Human Services involved working with disabled adults and emotionally challenged children. Her career began at Eastern Oregon Hospital, moving on to Bethage, Eastern Oregon Training Center and retiring from Mid-Columbia Center for Living in 2019. Pam's compassionate heart made a lifelong difference in many lives.

Pam was an anointed keyboardist and psalmist who learned to play by ear. She began her love for music learning to play the accordion at 8 years old. She became an accomplished accordion player winning many awards. She later learned to play the keyboard, writing many songs of faith that she sang in church and ministered to those in need. Pam was an active member of Living Word Christian Center in Pendleton as a worship leader and ministering to children.

Pam was an avid fisherman whose cast put the fear of God in every fish in the stream. She enjoyed camping with her friends and her god-daughter Kaeleen. She was known as "Auntie Pam" to many children who enriched her life greatly and gave her much joy. She was a foster parent to two very special boys who enlarged her heart and home with much love.

Pam was a counselor with Good Samaritan Ministries for many years where she touched many lives with her strong faith and her ability to really listen to people. Her home was an open door for prayer and bible study over the years.

Pam's compassionate and kind heart touched multitudes of lives over the years. She had mercy and kindness for everyone. Her trust in the Lord and His words were a true anchor in her life. She will be deeply missed.

Pam is survived by her niece, Kelly Wheeler; nephew, Joshua Brooks of College Place, Washington; her brother-in-law, Ron Wheeler, and her best friend, Marie Mize of Pendleton.

A celebration of life service will be held on March 31 at 1 p.m. at Living Word Christian Center in Pendleton. Memorial contributions in Pam's memory can be made to Living Word Christian Center or Good Samaritan Ministries in Pendleton. Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneerchapel.com.

Bert J. Houweling

June 15, 1950 - March 10, 2022

Bert J. Houweling, age 71, passed away peacefully on March 10, 2022, in Kennewick, Washington. Bert was born on June 15, 1950, in Den Haag, Netherlands, to Albert and Maria Houweling. Bert's family moved to Salt Lake City, Utah, when he was 6 years old. He always had fond memories of his childhood there.

When Bert was 12 years old, his family moved to Bellevue, Washington. He was hired by a neighbor to clean stalls and exercise their horses and it was then that he discovered a love for horses.

Bert served in the United States Army as military police and was honorably discharged in September of 1976. Bert later became a member of both The Odd Fellows and The Elks Lodge. As a young man, Bert worked at Fred Meyer and became their youngest store manager. From there, he went to Associated Grocers in Seattle, and eventually owned Heppner Family Foods in Heppner, Oregon. Bert enjoyed his employees, and the people he interacted with daily at his store in Heppner. But above all, he loved his children, Charlene, Jason and Candice.

Bert was preceded in death by his parents, Albert Houweling and Maria (Van Der Meer) Houweling.

Bert is survived by his children, Charlene M. Houweling, Jason E. Houweling and Candice Felstad; and his siblings, Hubertina Seal, Mary Skidmore, Albert C. Houweling, Jeannette Ruijgrok, Jessie Hargrove and Shirley VanSchie.

In lieu of flowers, donations may be made in Bert's honor to Chaplaincy Health Care, 1480 Fowler St., Richland, WA 99352.

A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, April 23, 2022, at 11 a.m. at Einan's at Sunset-Event Center, 915 Bypass Highway, Richland, WA 99352. Inurnment immediately following at Sunset Memorial Gardens, in the Veteran's Memorial Wall.
