

EOU UNVEILS SENIOR CAPSTONE ART EXHIBIT

LA GRANDE — The Nightingale Gallery at Eastern Oregon University presents “Sum and Substance,” the senior capstone exhibit of Sophia Aimone, Kim Baum and Dalton Mauzey. The exhibition opens Friday, April 1, with a reception from 5-7 p.m. in the gallery, located in Loso Hall. The exhibit runs through April 29.

OPEN REGIONAL FOCUSES ON PHOTOGRAPHY

PENDLETON — This year’s Open Regional Exhibit at Pendleton Center for the Arts is seeking photography submissions. The show is open to all adult amateur and professional artists who live in Eastern Oregon or Southeastern Washington. Also, there is a teen category. Photographers, who may enter two photographs, are encouraged to select their best shots taken within the past five years. In addition, artists may indicate their works are for sale, with the arts center receiving a 30% commission.

Submissions must be dropped off on April 2, noon-4 p.m., at Pendleton Center for the Arts, 214 N. Main St. To arrange a different time, contact the arts center. For more information, including registration and labeling instructions, visit www.pendletonarts.org, call 541-278-9201 or email director@pendletonarts.org.

tails and to register, go to www.fishtrap.com.

WINEMAKERS DINNER SET FOR APRIL 9

BAKER CITY — The Geiser Grand Hotel will showcase Copper Belt Winery at a special dinner on Saturday, April 9, featuring winemaker Travis Cook as the host.

The Winemakers Dinner begins with a tasting class at 5 p.m., followed by dinner at 7 p.m. Advance tickets are $95 and available at the hotel, 1996 Main St., or by calling 541-523-1889.

“The Geiser Grand supports the excellent makers in the region by purchasing their products and showcasing their unique attributes to our guests,” said hotel owner Barbara Sidway. “We’ve been supporting Copper Belt Winery from their start, so it seemed a natural progression to develop an annual dinner to really celebrate their wines.”

During the dinner, Cook will talk about the wine — where the grapes come from and how the wine is made. The hotel chef will also talk about the food preparation.
