The Helix Advancement Partnership Network, which formed in 2004, recently received a $20,000 grant from Roundhouse Foundation for a window-replacement project at the old Helix Grade School.

installed, received an upgrade to its electrical and HVAC systems, and completed renovations in the library and children's room.

The Roundhouse Foundation's mission is to support creative solutions to the unique challenges associated with rural culture and landscapes of the Pacific Northwest. Its vision is to create a positive impact through collaboration in communities by encouraging creative problem solving and innovative programming, to stimulate local economies.

The HAPN project also has received support from the Schwab Charitable Trust ($30,000), the Kinsman Foundation ($5,000), the Wild-horse Foundation ($20,000), and raised more than $17,000 in local support, including donations from Mike and Jill Thorne, William Dorrans, Harry and Phyllis Schuening, Cliff and Judy Bracher, Janet Wood, Margaret Hale Hudemann, the Stanton family and Bob, Colleen, Jeff and Sharilyn Newton.

HAPN is a group of volunteers whose focus is to help obtain funds to enhance local programs and services in the community. Its purpose is to preserve local history, improve the quality of life and promote the welfare of Helix residents.

Sharon Ingram Harrison

April 2, 1949 - December 17, 2021

Sharon Ingram Harrison was a loving and generous wife, mother, grandmother and friend. On Friday, Dec. 17, 2021, she passed away to be with her heavenly father at the age of 72.

Sharon was born on April 2, 1949, and was the only child of Dr. Clarence Landrine and Mrs. Margaret Cunliff Ingram of Pendleton, Oregon. She met her future husband, Terry Wallace Harrison, while attending Pendleton High School, and graduated with the Pendleton class of 1967. Soon after, she pursued her bachelor's degree in education from Eastern Oregon University in La Grande, Oregon. Sharon was married to Terry in 1969 at the First Presbyterian Church of Pendleton, Oregon.

Sharon had two children. Her first son, Jon, was born in 1976. The following year, she and Terry moved from Portland, Oregon, to Athena, Oregon, where she established a loving home and pursued her career in pre-school and elementary education. Her second son, Robert (Robb), was born in 1982.

Sharon cherished spending time with her children and grandchildren. She was a loving grandmother of three granddaughters and one grandson. Sharon's Christian faith was central to her person, and she made sure to pass this on to her family and friends.

In 1990, Sharon joined her husband in opening and running a Papa Aldo's Take 'n' Bake Pizza franchise (now Papa Murphy's) in Milton-Freewater, Oregon. They soon opened two more shops in College Place, Washington, and Walla Walla, Washington. In the 32 years she served these communities, her loving smile, attention to service and friendship were apparent to all who knew her.

Sharon was an avid traveler, skier, cyclist and enjoyed spending time boating. She spent many late summers planning camping trips with her family to the Oregon Wallowa Lake State Park. She loved long summer road trips. She was a loving dog-owner, and all but 9 months of her life were spent with a dachshund by her side.

Sharon is survived by her husband, Terry; her son, Jon, and his wife, Stacy, of Gresham, Oregon; her son, Robb, and his wife, Meghan, of Milton-Freewater, Oregon; granddaughters, Emma, Haddie and Libby; and grandson, Jack. She was preceded in death by her parents, Clarence and Margaret Ingram.

A small private service will be held.

Patricia 'Pat' Mann Hopper

July 25, 1925 - March 3, 2022

A life well-lived deserves to be celebrated, let us come together, friends, and family, to share in the life of Patricia "Pat" Mann Hopper. Throughout Pat's journey through life, she touched many lives, and as a result, so many were changed for the better.

As a show of appreciation, our family invites you to join us on Saturday, April 9, 2022, from 1-3 p.m. at the Double M Ranch sale facility, located at 30256 Stanfield Meadows Road, Stanfield. We will commemorate Pat's life and pay tribute to her legacy by sharing stories, pie and cookies, pictures and the special memories we all have of her.
