Candace Corleone Colbert
July 1, 1945 - March 21, 2022

Candi was preceded in death by her husband, Charles Monroe Colbert; her mother, Phylliss Patricia Ormandy; and her father, Walter Ingvald Pearson. She is survived by her son, Cameron Campbell, his wife, Melissa, and five grandchildren; brothers, Duke Christian Pearson, Volney Patrick Gay; and sisters, Victoria Caravello and Liss Gay.

Candi was born in Portland, Oregon, and was educated in Portland Public Schools. She worked for many years as a nurse assistant in Portland hospitals.

As "Second Mom" for her three younger siblings, Candi came to nursing with ready-made kindness and skill. Candi was an eccentric, artistic, passionate woman whose sense of humor gave her almost invincible powers. She deeply appreciated beauty and art, and her home was like an art museum. She was an avid reader who enjoyed philosophical, mystical and metaphysical books. She found joy in criminal justice and advocacy work, and she cared for those who were less fortunate. She loved to give presents, and she was famous for her care packages. Candi also loved Elvis. Her younger brother regrets that his unkind imitation of Elvis almost spoiled the moment when she saw him on "The Ed Sullivan Show" on Sept. 9, 1956.

Candi had been married only a brief time when her husband was killed in a car accident. She had to cope with young widowhood while being a single parent to her infant son, Cameron, born in September 1971. In that circumstance and many others, Candi showed courage in the face of great obstacles. From one of her poems:

I would like to live willingly without bonus.
 Using gratitude to remember mercy. Without self-pity.
 Becoming lenient with forgiveness. With a heart to nurture.
 Leaving the road less traveled. With my footprints.
 Replenishing my tapestry. As a living epistle for my heirs.
 While holding the pieces of the heart. Reconciliation can occur.
 The significance of the unvarnished glimpses
 Becomes transparent over God's victory.
 Remembrance events are still in planning.

Hermiston School District sets new boundaries

East Oregonian

HERMISTON — New school boundaries will take effect in the Hermiston School District with the start of 2022 school year.

The district's board approved the boundaries at a recent meeting.

According to a press release from the district, the updated boundaries follow the passage of the 2019 Hermiston school bond. The building of a larger Rocky Heights Elementary School and the addition of a sixth elementary school, Loma Vista.

"The two schools are larger, improved facilities and will accommodate more students, which will help to alleviate overcrowded conditions at the remaining sites. The increased campus sizes of the new buildings, along with capacity issues across the remaining campuses, necessitates adjustments to elementary and middle school attendance boundaries," according to the press release.

The release explained the district administration and the boundary committee, consisting of parents, board members and school personnel, presented the boundary proposal to the board. The committee analyzed school attendance areas, population growth, housing density studies and feeder school scenarios. Middle school boundaries will be determined by a family's physical address and where it falls relative to Highway 395, to the west or the east. Students of Desert View, West Park and Rocky Heights elementary schools will attend Armand Larive Middle School, and Highland Hills, Sunset and Loma Vista Elementary students will attend Sandstone Middle School.

"Adjusting boundaries is a community effort," Tricia Mooney, superintendent of schools, said in the press release. "Thank you to the boundary committee members for their insight and time. The team made every effort to affect as few students as possible; although, some changes were necessary to fill the new school and relieve crowding at the remaining campuses."

Letters from the district went to kindergarten through seventh grade students to inform each family of their child's school for the next school year.

The school district also urged families to contact the school or district office if they are concerned the identified school is inaccurate.

Shirley Arlene (McKinnon) Ward Mentzer
April 14, 1941 - April 6, 2022

Shirley was born in Baudette, Minnesota, on April 14, 1941, and died on April 6, 2022, at Suttle Care in Pendleton, Oregon.

Shirley was the daughter of Bill and Vicky McKinnon, joining her older sister, Beverly, and brother, Charles. She always made jokes about being the middle child. The McKinnon family were blessed with twin boys, Donny and Denny, along with the baby sister of the family, Valerie. Shirley was preceded in death by her parents and her sisters.

As the stories have been told over the years, one day when Shirley was 6 years old the six children, Bill and Vicky loaded up and left Minnesota, headed for Mitchell, Oregon, where Shirley attended school.

Shirley married Kenly Jason Ward (later divorced) and they lived in Long Creek, Oregon, where they added Curtis Jason Ward and Cathy Kay Ward-Stelk. Living the life of a logging family led them to the Woods Camp on the North Fork of the John Day River. Several years of adventure and memories were lived at the Woods Camp, where the saying "it takes a village to raise kids" originated. The family moved to Pilot Rock in 1970.

Shirley was a full-time homemaker and also worked at the Pilot Rock Grocery and Drug Store. She never missed Curtis' and Cathy's school events. Shirley went to beauty school and worked locally until retiring.

Shirley was blessed in marrying one of the most patient men in the world, Norman K. Mentzer. Norm and Shirley lived a happy life of 20-plus years in Pendleton, Oregon, enjoying trips to the Coast, back to Minnesota and to Arizona, making stops and detours to every casino that was calling them.

Norm preceded Shirley in death on Dec. 2, 2018. She was also preceded in death by her son-in-law, Ken G. Stelk, in 2013. Shirley loved and lived for her children, Curtis and Cathy, and stepchildren, Tom, Andrew and Lani, along with loving all her grandchildren, step-grandchildren, great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Shirley always had a pot of coffee for friends and family to stop by and visit. She was a wonderful cook and was well known for her macaroni salad and huckleberry cheesecake at most family events. She enjoyed reading, shopping and collecting antiques, especially dishes.

Memorial contributions can be forwarded to the Pilot Rock Education Foundation, P.O. Box 174, Pilot Rock, Oregon, or Hermiston Hospice, 645 W. Orchard Ave., Hermiston, Oregon.

A graveside service will be held Friday, April 15, 2022, at 1:30 p.m. at the Pilot Rock Cemetery. There will be refreshments following the service at the Life Church, 222 SW Third St., Pilot Rock.

Carlene Hahn

July 21, 1936 - March 10, 2022

Carlene Hahn, 85, a longtime resident of Pendleton, Oregon, died on Thursday, March 10, 2022 at Meadowbrook Senior Living Center in Baker City, Oregon, with her beloved parrot "Jade" at her side.

Carlene was born July 21, 1936, in Pendleton, Oregon, to parents Dave and Lee Coughenower. She attended school in Pendleton where she was born and raised, graduating high school in 1954. Following high school, she attended college at Oregon State University.

In 1957, she married Jack Kinnaman, and together had two children, Brent and Bekki. They divorced in 1973. Carlene married Lindy Hahn in 1975 along with his children, Ron, Doug, Melinda and stepdaughter, Carla.

Carlene worked as a legal secretary for Kottkamp & O'Rourke from 1965-1998. After she retired, she volunteered many hours memorializing Umatilla County history by sorting and identifying pictures at the Heritage Museum and the Pendleton Hall of Fame.

Carlene's hobbies in high school included riding in parades on her horse "Windy" and going to horse shows. After she married Jack they joined a bowling league for many years. When she married Lindy, they started breeding and showing basset hounds. Her daughter, Bekki, started raising guide dog puppies for the blind in high school, which she then continued herself after Bekki graduated. She was a true animal lover. It was like a petting zoo on their 5-acre farm. She had donkeys, sheep, sheep dogs, pigs, geese, ducks and lots of basset hounds. Carlene and Lindy enjoyed being full-time RV'ers after they retired. They would spend time in Benson, Arizona, for the winter and Pendleton in the summer, until Lindy's death in 2007.

Carlene was a dedicated Pendleton Round-up fan. She had front row box seats with her best friend from Jr. High School, Martha Sue Powers. The two never missed a year attending the Round-up for 62 years.

Let'er Buck!
 Carlene was preceded in death by her parents and husband, Lindy Hahn. She is survived by her children, Brent (Cindy) Kinnaman and Bekki (Rick) Hurley; stepchildren, Ron and Doug Hahn, Melinda Fearn and Carla Thorgersen; brother, Doug (Linda) Coughenower; grandchildren, Ryan and Mikayla Kinnaman and John and Megan Hurley; great-grandson, Easton Kinnaman.

For those who would like to make a memorial donation in memory of Carlene, the family suggests the Round-Up Hall of Fame Association or Guide Dogs for the Blind through Tami's Pine Valley Funeral Home and Cremation Services, PO Box 543 Halfway, Oregon 97834.
