allows me to be a part of his program," Doherty said. "I love helping the program and seeing them improve from season to season. It's pretty rewarding."

At the middle school level, the Mustangs run a scaled-down version of the high school playbook. The team also has to be prepared for anything from 11-man to eight-man football.

The 2A teams in Oregon are going to nine-man football this fall, something Doherty's team has played over the years. "Not every team has a lot as much as we can. Sometimes we play nine-man, 11-man or eight-man. We have played lots of nine-man already."

"I LOVE HELPING THE PROGRAM AND SEEING THEM IMPROVE FROM SEASON TO SEASON. IT'S PRETTY REWARDING."

of kids," Doherty said. "We (middle school coaches) talk every week and accommodate

And none of it would be possible without the support of the community.

"I am the public works director for the city of Heppner," Doherty said. "I want to thank the city council for letting me have the time to coach. They are pretty awesome about that."

A 1994 graduate of Heppner High school, Doherty was a member of the 1992 state championship team as a junior.

"I didn't play a lot, but a little quarterback and free safety," Doherty said. "By all means, I wasn't on the field helping the team win that state championship, but I was on the scout team."
