ACE WRITING PROJECT SET FOR MAY 18

LA GRANDE — The ACE Writing Project features Tashon Phoenix on Wednesday, May 18, 7 p.m. The Art Center East monthly literary event will be virtual — sign up at artcentereast.org/events/ace-writing-project/.

Formerly of Omaha, Nebraska, where they played defensive back for the Nebraska Nite-Hawks of the WNFC until their transition, Phoenix (they, them, theirs) is a non-binary Trans-masculine Creative and Spoken Word Artist now living in Portland. They've been featured on the social audio app Clubhouse by Love & Lyrics as well as Mike Guinn Entertainment, and can be seen live at such local Portland venues as The Queens Head and Alberta Street Pub. Visit mindstateless.com to read their poetry, view videos and art and listen to their podcast.

BROTHERS OSBORNE TO HEADLINE FRONTIER DAYS AUG. 31

WALLA WALLA — Country music duo Brothers Osborne will headline the 2022 Walla Walla Fair & Frontier Days. Concert tickets, which include admission to the fair, range from $54 to $114.

The show is Aug. 31, 7 p.m., the opening day of the fair. With a theme of "Comin' in Hot," the fair runs through Sept. 4.

Described as a mix between Southern rock and outlaw country, Brothers Osborne is best known for their 2015 song "Stay a Little Longer." It climbed into the top five on Billboard Hot Country Songs and Country Airplay charts.

For tickets, call 509-527-3247 or go to wallawallafairgrounds.com. Online sales are limited to eight.

CORNHOLE FOR CHARITY SEEKS PARTICIPANTS

PENDLETON — The charity event Cornhole for a Cause is Thursday, May 19, 5 p.m. in the Happy Canyon Arena, 1601 Westgate. The event also features a silent auction, door prizes, a 50-50 drawing and a no-host bar.

Each team that enters will choose a charity to play for — the selected charities of the first, second and third place teams will receive a donation. In addition, winning teams will receive a prize package from local businesses.

The registration fee is $60.
