Helen 'Diane' Campbell

April 6, 1934 - June 9, 2022

Helen "Diane" Campbell died June 9, 2022, at Regency at The Park in College Place, Washington.

Diane was born April 6, 1934, in Pendleton, Oregon, to parents Albert Rollin and Helen DeVaul McBroom. She lived all but the last few years of her life on the ranch homesteaded by her great-grandparents in 1865 on East Birch Creek near Pilot Rock, Oregon.

Diane spent her childhood years riding horses and helping with the family ranch. She was a talented vocalist, singing at local events and church services while in high school. After graduating from Pilot Rock High School, she set aside college plans and began working at what became her lifelong career as a veterinary technician. Her tremendous work ethic and love for all animals made her an exceptional, extremely knowledgeable, and compassionate tech at clinics in Pendleton and Hermiston for over 50 years.

Diane and William C. "Bill" Campbell were married April 22, 1955. They always had a house and pasture full of all types of animals, every one of them treated as a family member. If you were an animal in need of love and care, you would want to find the Campbell's on East Birch Creek!

Diane excelled at showing dogs in obedience trials. She and Bill raised and showed quarter horses and appaloosas for many years with great success. She loved plants, flowers and working in her yard. Her adventurous nature loved traveling, taking her on memorable trips to many western states and Alaska, and once on a thrilling whitewater rafting trip.

Diane was preceded in death by her husband, Bill; her parents, sister, Dorothy Harms; brother-in-law, Don Harms; and nephew, Stuart Harms.

She is survived by many friends who will miss her wit, charm, beauty, independence, positive thinking/never give up attitude, kindness, and love.

A graveside service will be held June 22, 2022, at 11 a.m. at Olney Cemetery, Pendleton. In lieu of flowers, please consider a donation to a cause very dear to Diane, Blue Mountain Wildlife, c/o Burns Mortuary, P.O. Box 489, Pendleton OR 97801, or directly to Blue Mountain Wildlife, 71046 Appaloosa Lane, Pendleton OR 97801.

Frances 'Fran' Kathleen Marlenee

May 8, 1937 - June 5, 2022

Frances was born in Cincinnati, Ohio, to parents Frank and Laverne "Bonnie" Weitzel. Her family moved to Echo, Oregon, where she met her future husband, Billy Ray Marlenee. They were married on July 10, 1954.

Together, they had four children, Tina Marie, Rhonda Rae, Allison Kay and Sheldon Wade. They also had several grandchildren. Frances worked for many different employers over the years, including Bell Buoy Crab Company, Bumblebee Seafood, JR Simplot and the Weiser Senior Center.

Frances was a very active woman who loved to go bowling and swimming. She also loved to knit and crochet. She did beautiful work and from time to time would enter her creations in the local fair. She displayed her ribbons proudly.

Frances lived in several cities in Oregon and Kansas prior to retiring in Weiser, Idaho, with her husband, Billy Ray. They loved fishing for catfish on the Snake River.

Frances was preceded in death by her husband, Billy Ray; daughters, Tina Marie and Allison Kay; both parents and two sisters.

Arrangements under the direction of Thomason Funeral Home. Condolences may be sent to the family at www.lienkaemper-thomason.com. Donations can be made to Angel Wings, Weiser Idaho.
