Dale Jay Wendt

January 21, 1947 - June 1, 2022

Dale was born Dale Jay Bayer in Burbank, California, to Margaret Enyeart and John Bayer. As an adult, Dale was adopted by his stepfather and changed his surname to Wendt.

Dale graduated high school from Newport Beach Harbor High. He spent his teenage years surfing in Southern California and Mexico.

Dale received his B.S. and M.A. in Agricultural Sciences from the two California Polytechnic State universities. He taught agriculture at Blue Mountain Community College, Pendleton, Oregon, for 33 years. Dale also studied in Seattle for several years to become a coffee roaster.

While in his 20s, Dale lived and worked in the Philippine Islands for six years. The first two years he was with the Peace Corps. This experience began a lifelong love of travel that broadened his perspective of agriculture, history and the human condition. Dale was a man with a big heart, and he is missed.

Dale is survived by his wife of 43 years, Judy Mayfield; son, Ash Wendt; daughter, Amber Coyne; and four grandsons, Jordan, Oliver, Owen and Joseph.

A neighborhood memorial gathering was held at the home he loved in Pendleton, Oregon, on June 18. His ashes were scattered in the ocean in a beautiful celebration of life off Cayucos Pier on July 3 by a plaque that reads "smell the sea, and feel the sky, let your soul and spirit fly." Dale's spirit can now drink coffee, surf and grow plants throughout eternity.

For a remembrance, please give to the Alzheimer's Association or a similar organization to help find a cure.

Jason Allen 'Butch' Wilson

March 27, 1970 - July 11, 2022

Jason Allen "Butch" Wilson, 52, passed away on July 11, 2022, in Hermiston. He was born in Atwater, California, to parents Bill and Kathy (Lema) Wilson.

Butch was a longtime resident of Pilot Rock, Oregon. He loved the time that he spent with the players and families involved with Pilot Rock Little League and the Pilot Rock Junior High and High School. He felt that his time spent as a coach, umpire, board member and volunteer was some of the best. Butch loved the outdoors, hunting, fishing and most of all spending time with family and friends.

Butch was a journeyman lineman with Pacific Power and a member of IBEW Local 125.

He is survived by his parents, Bill and Kathy Wilson; brother, Jake Wilson; daughters, Taylor Wilson, Brooke Wilson and Jacey Wilson, all of Pendleton; grandchildren, Addison and Parker.

A memorial service will be held at 6 p.m. on Saturday, July 16, 2022, at the Pilot Rock Softball Field.

Online condolences may be shared with the family at www.pioneerchapel.com.

Scott Allen Herburger

November 15, 1997 - July 8, 2022

Scott Allen Herburger, 24, passed away July 8, 2022, in Kennewick, Washington. Scott was born Nov. 15, 1997, in Walla Walla, Washington, to Mark and Michelle Herburger. He spent his life in Pendleton, Oregon. Scott worked in tech support.

Scott is survived by his parents, Mark and Michelle Herburger; his sister, Ryan Herburger; grandfather, Chuck Herburger; grandmother, Marti Mitchell; and an abundance of aunts, uncles, cousins and friends.

Scott is preceded in death by his Papa Chuck Mitchell; grandmother, Vernita Herburger; and great-grandmother, Nina Jackson.

In lieu of flowers the family asks that you honor Scott by being kind to others like he was.

There will be a celebration of life held on Saturday, July 16, 2022, at the family home. Please reach out to the family if interested in attending.

Hillcrest Funerals and Cremation of Washington is handling the arrangements. The family invites you to sign the online guest book on his tribute wall at www.HillcrestFunerals.com.
