

Dear Martin,

As I hope you'll remember, I was your third-grade teacher at Rackleff Elementary School forty years ago.

I asked you to imagine what your life would be like forty years in the future, and to write your thoughts on an index card.

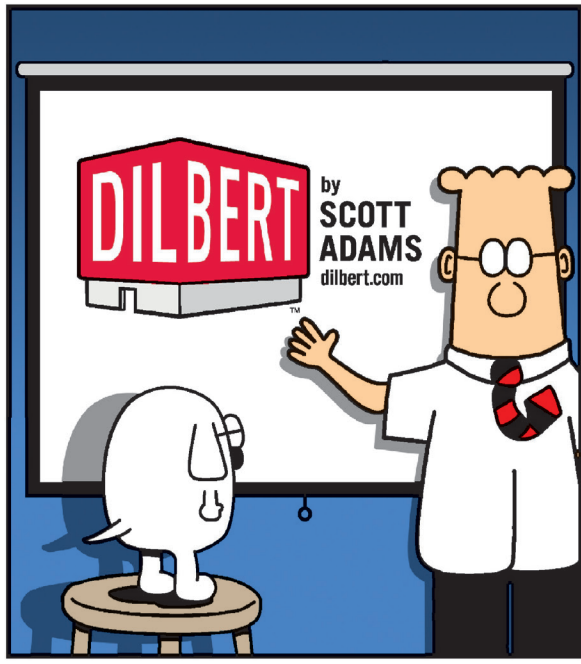

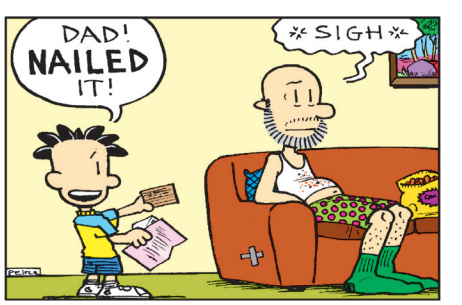

I have long since retired, but I've held on to that index card and am sending to you today.

I hope it will remind you of the dreams you cherished as a child and inspire you to contemplate the life you've built for yourself.

Warm regards,
Helen Blaylock

I don't care about being rich and famous, so I don't think I am going to be rich or famous.

WISH ME LUCK. I'M GOING TO OPEN AN APP.

DO YOU HAVE TIME FOR THAT?

I CLEARED MY CALENDAR FOR IT.

ACCOUNT NOT FOUND

IT BEGINS.

SEVEN HOURS LATER

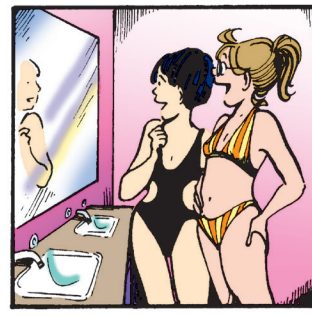

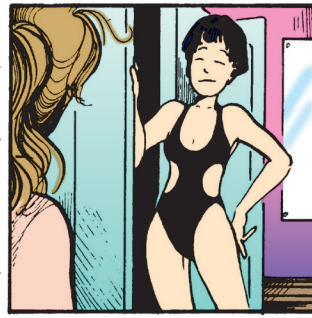

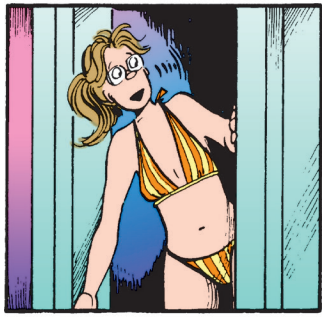

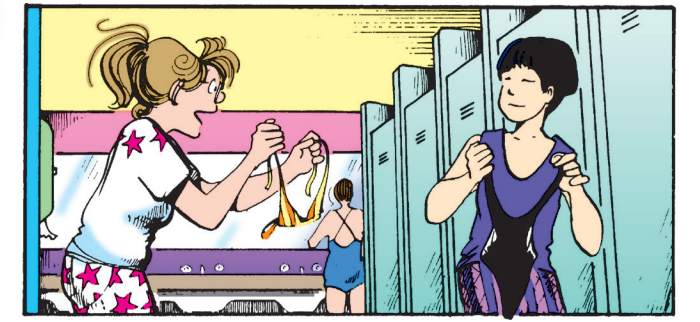

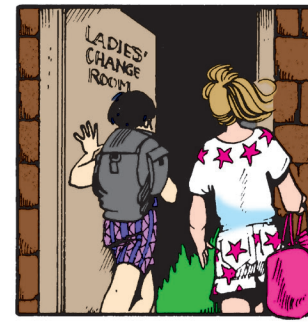

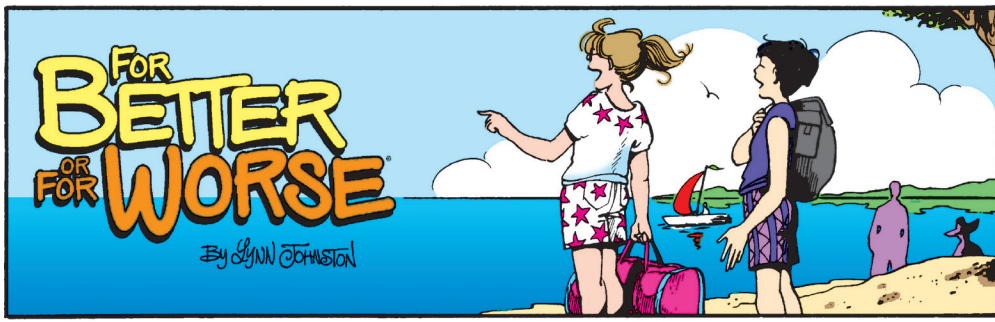

DID YOU GET IT OPEN?

ALMOST.

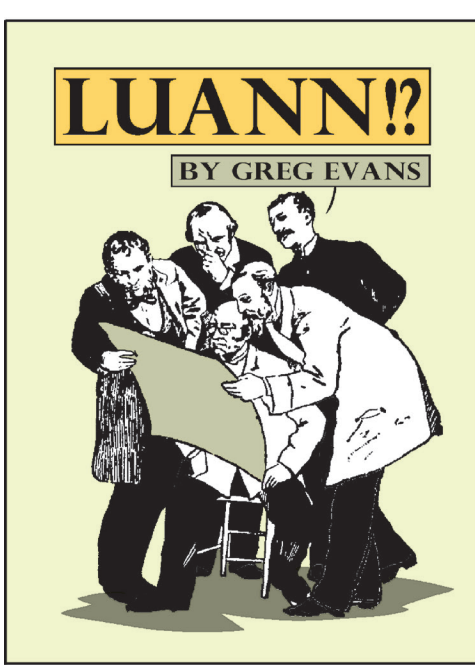

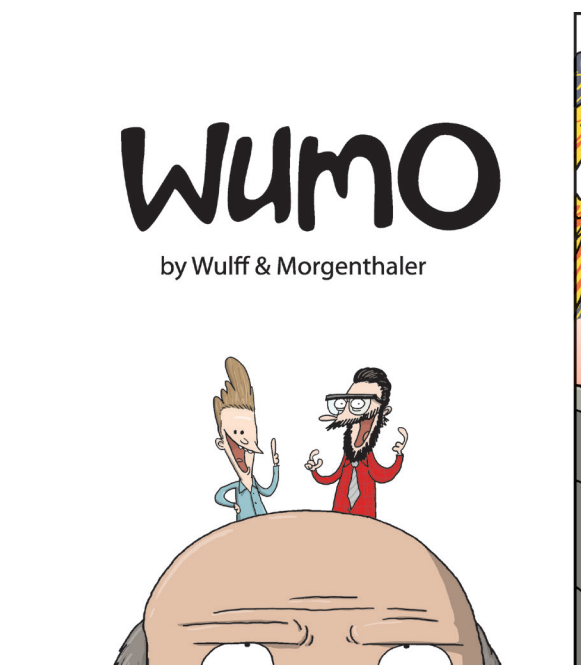

I HAD TO LEGALLY CHANGE MY NAME AND BUY A HOUSE WITH A DIFFERENT ADDRESS JUST TO RE-REGISTER.

BUT NOW IT ALL WORKS?

IT MIGHT IF I COULD UNLOCK MY PHONE!!!

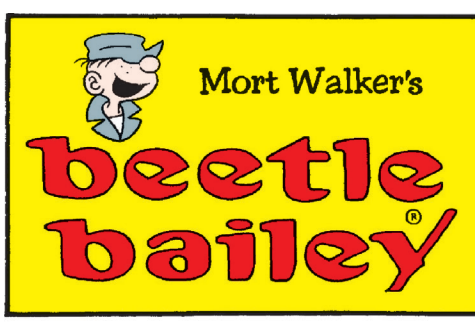

DAWN PELIZABETH? ARE YOU GONNA COME SWIMMING OR WHAT?!

YOU'RE SUPPOSED TO BE CLEANING YOUR ROOM

I KNOW. I WILL. I JUST NEED TO OPTIMIZE MY BUFFER PRAMS SO THEY'LL CONVERT EMBEDDED FIREWALL VECTORS. YOU SHOULD BE SURE TO DO IT ON YOUR COMPUTER, TOO

THERE'S SARGE. IT'S ABOUT TIME I TOLD HIM WHAT I REALLY THINK

DO YOU KNOW WHAT YOU ARE, SARGE?

YEAH, YEAH, I'VE HEARD IT ALL BEFORE...

I'M BIG, DUMB AND UGLY...

I'M MEAN, INSENSITIVE, CRUEL AND UNFAIR...

I'M STUPID AND IGNORANT...

AND I HAVE NO EMPATHY OR COMPASSION... IS THAT WHAT YOU WANTED TO TELL ME?

I WAS JUST GOING TO SAY THAT YOU'RE NOT SUCH A BAD GUY...

BUT YOU'VE BROUGHT UP SOME REALLY GOOD POINTS
