WEDNESDAYS IN THE PARK CRESCENDOS JULY 27

PENDLETON — Katie Dinsmore, a singer-songwriter out of Seattle, is closing out the Wednesdays in the Park series in Pendleton. The final show is Wednesday, July 27, 6-8 p.m. at Roy Raley Park, 1205 S.W. Court Ave.

Dinsmore's dynamic stage presence as a performer is said to be powerful and emotional. American Songwriter poetically likened her voice to "a howling breeze through a country barn." Dinsmore doesn't disagree, saying it's "heartbreak you can sway to."

While there is no admission charge, people are encouraged to bring their wallets — local food vendors will offer a variety of fare. In addition, a beer and wine garden will be available for those 21 and older. For more about Dinsmore, visit www.katedinsmoremusic.com.
