Lt. Col. (Retired) Troy Richard Young

March 11, 1937 - June 26, 2022

Troy Richard Young was born March 11, 1937, to Morris and Vivian (Dugger) Young in Amory, Mississippi. He attended school and graduated from Amory High School. He attended University of Southern Mississippi graduating with a BS degree and later pursued a career in the U.S. Army, attaining the rank of lieutenant colonel.

In 1958, he married Sue (Spencer) Young and they became the parents of two daughters and a son. He was a devoted husband and father and maintained his residence in El Paso, Texas. After retiring from the Army, he began an additional career with U.S. Civil Service from which he also retired.

Troy was a man of service, both to his country and communities in which he resided. He was active in his church as a Bible study teacher and later became very active in the Royal Rangers church sponsored youth program and attained several leadership roles. His interest in archery led him to teach the sport and later to establish El Paso Archery dealing with archery equipment and becoming a certified archery instructor. For many years, he created beautiful pieces of furniture through his interest in woodworking.

After the passing of his beloved wife, Sue, he became an avid motorcyclist and purchased a CanAm Spyder and took trips to New Mexico Franklin Mountains and other nearby destinations. He enjoyed the outdoors and later moved to the Blue Mountains of Eastern Oregon, purchasing a cabin at a small lake and began a project to update and modernize it to become a cozy, comfortable home.

He later married Margo Herd, a resident of Meacham, Oregon, and a teacher of the challenges of mountain living to which he became well adapted. He told his friends there were three seasons in Meacham, snow, mud, and dust and occasionally repeated themselves during the year. His most recent best friends were Bruno, Luna and Princess.

He is survived by his wife, Margo; two daughters, Vivian Blankenship and Melissa Flenniken; a son, Troy Christopher (Dina); grandchildren, Bethany, Ryan, Alison, Ashley, Troy Douglas and Lily; brothers, Charles, Danny and Jimmy.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by his wife, Sue; granddaughter, Leslie Noel Blankenship; son-in-law, Rick Blankenship; and pups, Bear and Dolly.

A graveside service with military honors is planned at 10:30 a.m., July 19, 2022, at Ft Bliss National Cemetery in El Paso, Texas.

Roderick K. 'Rod' Murray

July 5, 1926 - July 16, 2022

Roderick K. "Rod" Murray, 96, of Ione died, Saturday, July 16, 2022, at his home surrounded by family. A graveside service with military honors will be held on Friday, July 22, 2022, at 12 noon at the Heppner Masonic Cemetery.

He was born July 5, 1926, at Hillsboro, Oregon, the son of Dallas and Laura "Dolly" McInnis Murray. Rod was raised on Chehalem Mountain between Newberg and Hillsboro, Oregon, and attended Newberg High School. After high school, he served his country in the Army Air Corps during World War II. He then returned to attend Oregon State University and graduate with a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy.

On July 28, 1945, Rod married "Meg", Margaret Lou Gwin, in Biloxi, Mississippi. The couple raised five children and for many years owned and operated Murray Drugs in Heppner and Condon.

Rod had many activities outside of pharmacy and took great pleasure in being outdoors either raising racing quarter horses or black angus cattle. He especially loved being with family.

Survivors include children, Mark Murray and Sandy, Matt Murray and Mary, John Murray and Ann, Anne Murray and Dawn; plus 12 grandchildren and dozens of great-grandchildren.

Rod was preceded in death by wife, Meg; daughter and son-in-law, Maralee and Dean Trotter; siblings, Laura "Twoie" Haynes, Virginia "Ginia" Coleman, Mildred "Millie" Walters and Sherman Murray.

Contributions in his honor may be made to Pioneer Memorial Hospice, P.O. Box 9, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. You may sign the online condolence book at www.sweeneymortuary.com.

Trisha Marie Farley Huddleston

August 18, 1948 - July 13, 2022

Trisha Marie Farley Huddleston passed away after an eight-year battle with cancer. She courageously fought the disease to the very end. She was born on Aug. 18, 1948, to Jim and Louise Farley. She attended school in Heppner graduating in 1966, then attended college at Eastern Oregon University in La Grande and Oregon State University in Corvallis.

After college, Trisha married and lived in Hermiston for several years. There, she welcomed three daughters. After her daughter, Alissa, passed away, Trisha and her daughters, Anjie and Aimee, moved to Canby. Trisha raised her girls while working at a travel agency. She loved arranging trips for her clients and making sure their vacations were planned to perfection.

In 1988, Trish met the love of her life, Mike Huddleston at the Heppner St Patrick's Day celebration. As the story goes, they were introduced by cousin Paul Hisler. They recently celebrated 33 happy years of marriage.

Trish spent many years in Canby before moving to Woodburn. She enjoyed her work as a travel agent so much that she continued working part time from home, even while fighting cancer.

She had an amazing sense of humor. She had an uncanny knack for finding the perfect greeting card. Trish was so proud of her family, and loved seeing what her daughters and grandchildren have accomplished.

Survivors include her husband, Mike; daughters, Anjie (Darren) Vannoy, and Aimee (Jeremy) Kennel; sister, Shanny (Mark) Miller; grandchildren, Kylie Watton, Ely Kennel, and Karlie Vannoy; nephew, Corey (Jill) Miller; and niece, Marcy (Jimmy) Walton. She is preceded in death by her parents, and her daughter, Alissa Halverson.

Trish wished to be buried next to her daughter, Alissa, in Heppner, Oregon. The graveside service was Monday, July 18, 2022.

Contributions may be made in Trisha's honor, to Heppner Elementary School for books, at P.O. Box 367, Heppner, OR 97836.

Sweeney Mortuary of Heppner is in care of arrangements. You may sign the online condolence book at www.sweeneymortuary.com.
