February 26, 1969 - July 22, 2022

Perry D. Burroughs of Ellensburg, Washington (formerly of Eastern Oregon), was born in Prineville, Oregon, on Feb. 26, 1969. He passed away after a three-year battle with multiple myeloma in Yakima, Washington, on Friday, July 22, 2022, at the age of 53.

Perry was raised on a farm in Prosser, Washington, by his grandparents, Marcella and Charles Burroughs. He began working at areas farms and ranches at the age of 7 and he was an avid hunter during his youth. He graduated from Prosser High School in the class of 1987. He moved with his grandparents to Boardman, Oregon, in 1990.

Perry married Sara E. Petersen in Prosser, Washington, on Sept. 21, 1991. The couple lived and farmed in Boardman and across the Columbia River in Alderdale, Washington, on Sara's family farm. He worked as an equipment mechanic for John Deere, New Holland and for himself throughout his career. He lived in Hermiston for several years before moving to Ellensburg, Washington, five years ago.

Perry enjoyed raising Hereford cattle, growing alfalfa and hay, and collecting and restoring 1970s John Deere tractors. He volunteered at the Boardman Fire Department as a firefighter and ambulance driver for many years where he was given the nickname of lead foot. He later kept a fire vehicle of his own ready to go and would stop at any vehicle accident to help. His strong desire to help others was a big part of who he was.

He is survived by his wife, Sara; and his mother, Cynthia (Lee) Woods. He was preceded in death by his grandparents, Marcella and Charles Burroughs.

A graveside service will be held at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Aug. 6, 2022, at the Hermiston Cemetery in Hermiston, Oregon. Burns Mortuary of Hermiston is in care of arrangements.

Helen Frances Meyers Graymer

Helen Frances Meyers Graymer died on July 20, 2022. She outlived her friends, family members and husband. She was not thrilled that was her last role.

She grew up on a farm in Echo, and always considered herself a farm girl, though she never did like chores. She attended nursing school at Oregon State University and the University of Oregon, graduating in 1949. She was a nurse at Providence Hospital in Portland and St. Anthony Hospital and provided for her family while her husband, Harold Graymer, was getting started in business.

She had many interests and things that made her happy and she persuaded them with great zest. Helen was a member of the historical society as well as the Blue Mountain Doll Club. She had an almost journalistic zest for research and was an avid reader.

Each of her three kids, their spouses, and grandkids had a different relationship with her and we're all better for it.

While her family played their roles trying to interact with her in the later years, it was a joy to see the people who took care of her while she lived at home and in Suttle Care interact with her as a person. She went back and forth with them at times being grumpy but also her wit was amazing that would make one laugh out loud. We all thank you for that.

Graveside services at 9:30 a.m. on Aug. 1 at Olney Cemetery.

Rest in deserved peace.

Arrangements are with Pendleton Pioneer Chapel, Folsom-Bishop. Online condolences may be sent to www.pioneerchapel.com.
