Loretta Cleone Wagenaar

December 20, 1936 - August 19, 2022

Loretta Cleone Wagenaar, 85, of Condon, Oregon, passed away Aug. 19, 2022, in Pendleton, Oregon.

She was born on Dec. 20, 1936, to Franklin May and Alice Viola May. She was born in Condon. Growing up, she lived between Condon, Myrtle Point, Hillsboro and Monument. She lived a majority of her later life in Condon with a short time in Pendleton. Most recently, she had to move to Pendleton when a higher level of care was required.

On Oct. 24, 1958, Loretta married her husband, William Wagenaar, who was lost to a battle with cancer in November of 1999. Prior to his passing, they worked side-by-side ranching, farming, and raising their children outside of Condon. They had five children together, who she spent her life devoting her time and love to.

Her hobbies and interests included family, gardening, animals, puzzles, music, westerns, solitaire, walking, drives in the mountains, swinging on her porch swing, cooking, baking, sewing, crochet, and most importantly her love for her yard and flowers. She was well-known for her beautiful yard and many would always stop to admire it.

Loretta is survived by her sister, Frances May; her son and his wife, Chuck and Pam Wagenaar; son and his wife, Glenn and Tanya Wagenaar; daughter and her husband, Rich and Loretta Hampton; son and his wife, Bill and Sabrina Wagenaar; daughter, Ellen Wagenaar; two nieces, two nephews, eight grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

She was preceded in death by her parents, Franklin and Alice May; husband, William Wagenaar; and brother, Franklin May.

A graveside service will be held at Condon Masonic Cemetery on Aug. 25, 2022, at 11 a.m. Provided luncheon to follow at St. John's Catholic Hall.

PLEASE RECYCLE THIS PAPER

Carol Ann Toombs

April 13, 1946 - August 13, 2022

Carol Ann Toombs passed away at age 76 on Saturday, Aug. 13, 2022. She had been in declining health and is now in God's hands.

Carol was born on April 13, 1946, in Pendleton, Oregon, to Jesse D. Toombs and Margaret H. (Toombs) Cooley-Wells. At the young age of 2, Carol won the princess title at the Kiddy Carnival ran by the Lions Club. In junior high, she was a drum majorette and was a cheerleader throughout high school. Carol graduated in 1964 from Pendleton High School, working at the Francis Shop after school and on summer holidays.

She was a 1968 graduate from Oregon State University where she was affiliated with Delta Delta Delta Sorority and was also a member of Orchesis and Little Sister of Minerva, both national honoraries.

In 1966, while attending OSU, Carol competed in a national contest sponsored by Glamour Magazine. Fashion photos from college campuses all over the United States were entered and judged by their magazine editors. Selected from more than 350 entries, Carol won the title for Oregon state and was chosen one of the 10 Best-Dressed Coeds in the United States. She and the nine other winners spent nine days posing for photographers, going to parties and sightseeing. They were entertained by Sammy Davis Jr., Jack Jones and Rodney McDowell while over 1,500 members of the fashion industry were in attendance and had them model.

Carol earned a degree in education from OSU and taught in the Beaverton School District until her marriage to Grimm Paige Mason, then making their home in

New York City. Once again, she was back working in the fashion industry. She worked as an assistant manager at a boutique fashion shop on Fifth Avenue called Catherine Caprieti Designs, and I. Miller Galleria where she served as commentator and fashion coordinator for a style show held in the main ballroom of the Plaza Hotel. Not only were 500 women in attendance, Gloria Steinem was also their guest speaker.

As successful as she was, Carol always dreamed of moving back to the West Coast, where she finally made her permanent home. Once back home she earned a master's degree in special education from Portland State University, and it was here in Oregon she raised her son, Bobby, the joy of her life.

Carol is survived by her son, Bobby Prendergast of Portland; her mother, Margaret Cooley-Wells of King City; two sisters, Claudia (John) Lawton of Medford and Cindy (Don) Wallace of Tigard; and two nephews, Tanner (Avri) Lawton and Travis (Michelle) Lawton of Medford.

Carol was preceded in death by her father, Jesse D. Toombs and nephew, Todd John Lawton.

Officiating the service is her friend and pastor, Rev. Dr. James L. Wallace of Rise Church formerly Calvin Presbyterian Church in Tigard, where Carol was affiliated.

Memorial services will be held on Friday, Aug. 26 at 11 a.m. at Spencer, Libby and Powell Funeral Home in The Dalles, Oregon. Burial will follow at Odd Fellows Three Mile Cemetery for graveside internment.

Janet Lee 'Jan' Beitel

September 18, 1936 - August 5, 2022

Janet Lee "Jan" Beitel, a longtime resident of Oregon, was born on Sept. 18, 1936, in Portland. She died on Aug. 5, 2022, in Hermiston at the age of 85.

As a child, she traveled with her family which finally settled in Lincoln City. She loved her time in school and was a lifelong learner, attending many art courses into adulthood. Jan combined her entrepreneurial and artistic skills to create a sign painting business as she struck out on her own. She worked with extreme attention to detail and with intense passion and perseverance, aka "grit". It was rumored that she once painted a sign, standing on top of a truck, secured with a rope encircling her, while pregnant, in the middle of winter.

Jan and her husband of 57 years, Bob ("her knight in shining armor"), met through a young adult group in Salem, which they affectionately called the "Lonely Hearts Club." Shortly after meeting and attending a few group outings, Jan and Bob eloped to Las Vegas, Nevada, in 1965. While Bob worked as a schoolteacher, Jan enjoyed music and dancing, performing the Can-Can with the "Sawdusters" in Myrtle Point, and continuing her sign painting business.

Jan and Bob welcomed their first two children while living in The Dalles and their third child while living in Powers. They were ahead of their time, purchasing fixer-uppers, making improvements, and flipping for a profit to start a college fund for each child.

Jan and Bob moved to Umatilla, in the summer of 1977 with their three children. When Mount St. Helens blew, May of 1980, Jan and Bob made the decision to go into the sign business fulltime, and so they formed Jan & Bob's Signs. Their business thrived for over 20 years, as they "made their mark," until retiring and selling in 2002. That did not slow her down, Jan studied, tested, and earned her contractor's license a few years later.

Jan was passionate about art and loved to paint with her friends, her sister and with her grandchildren. She brought art to her community, planning and hosting arts and crafts shows throughout her lifetime. Jan was encouraging to those around her and would provide support and advice especially related to business. She loved fishing in rivers, lakes and the ocean. She went on many adventures including, New York, Paris, Tahiti, and Hawaii. However, her favorite place to be, other than home, was the Oregon coast.

Jan is survived by her husband, Bob; her siblings, Annie, Judy and David; her children, Dan and Diana; and her grandchildren, Alex, Libby, Nick, Sophia and Maria.

She is preceded in death by her parents, Edith and Frank Snyder; her brother, Frankie; and her son, Andy.

Recitation of the holy rosary will be held on Friday, Aug. 26, 2022, at 2:30 p.m. at Our Lady of Angels Catholic Church, Hermiston, Oregon. Mass of Christian Burial will follow at 3 p.m.

Please share memories of Jan with her family at www.burnsmortuaryhermiston.com. Burns Mortuary of Hermiston, Oregon, is in care of arrangements.
