SERVICES HELD FOR MINISTER

Rev. Otis A. Burgess Laid to Rest at Belle Passi Cemetery Tuesday

WOODBURN, Feb. 7.—(Special)—Funeral services for the Rev. Otis A. Burgess, who died at his home here Sunday, were held at the Church of God Tuesday afternoon, the Rev. J. J. Gillespie of Salem officiating. Pallbearers were Willis Rice, H. H. Wilson, W. J. Livingston, D. W. Shrock, E. F. Shrock and S. Sanbeck. Music was furnished by Miss Mary Stewart, the Rev. Clarence Elliott of Portland, and Miss Ruth Shrock at the piano. Interment was at the Belle Passi cemetery.

Mr. Burgess was born November 8, 1877, at Pomona, Kansas, and while still a small boy was separated from both of his parents, who had been separated from each other and who had left the boy in the care of another family. Later he was united with his father and moved with him to Smith Center, Kansas, where he entered the fourth grade at the age of 20 years. He was able to finish and allowed to enter high school, but his education was interrupted by the beginning of the Spanish-American war. He enlisted in company D of the 21st Kansas volunteers and at the close of the war he reentered high school and finished at the age of 35. While in high school he was an enthusiastic football player and had been a fan all his life. Two years ago he assisted the local high school by coaching the third team. Later through his influence his parents were remarried.

December 23, 1900, he was married to Miss Etta McCarter, who with three daughters survive him. The daughters are Mrs. John T. Myers of Woodburn, Mrs. A. P. Gregory of Oregon City, and Miss Olive Burgess of Woodburn. He also leaves a brother, Vinton Burgess, at Richmond, Nebraska, his mother, Mrs. Frances H. Burgess, at Smith Center, Kansas, seven grandchildren and several cousins.

For the past 20 years, Mr. Burgess had been active in the evangelistic work of the Church of God in Oregon and Washington. He has also been pastor of churches at Colfax, Oregon; Saint's Home and Tacoma, Wash. In 1916-17-18 he was principal of the Spokane Bible school and in 1923-24 he was superintendent of the Kansas City Bible school.

On Sunday morning he suffered a paralytic stroke and died shortly afterwards. Twice before he had suffered strokes but had recovered, once at North Bend, Oregon in February, 1928, and again in May of the same year.

Pluck Balks Thugs

When two bandits entered his father's drug store in Detroit, 11-year-old Steven Thomas ran out and phoned the police. As the bandits left, he watched them and, obtaining the license number of their car, again called headquarters. As a result one of the hold-up men was shot and killed in a gun battle with police and a policeman was wounded. Steven is to be awarded a special medal for his heroism.

COUNCIL STRESSES FIRE TRUCK NEED

WOODBURN, Feb. 7.—(Special)—The need of a new fire truck for the city was stressed at the meeting of the city council Tuesday evening. The dilapidated truck will be taken to a garage for temporary repairs and arrangements will be made for equipment to take its place while it is out of commission.

The appointment of Mrs. Mabel Settlemeier and Mrs. Annetta Simmons to the library board for a term of three years was reported by Mayor W. H. Broyles and the act was approved by the council. The annual report of the board was also received and placed on file.

The street commissioner was ordered to gravel the crossing of the Oregon Electric tracks at Second and Cleveland streets in order to eliminate the roughness of the crossing. After transacting routine business and examining the new sewer cleaner and root cutter recently purchased by the council the meeting adjourned.

SILVERTON ENTERS LEAGUE OF CITIES

SILVERTON, Feb. 7.—(Special)—The city council of Silverton has asked Mayor E. C. Eastman to represent Silverton on the League of Oregon Cities, a movement which is under way to establish a closer contact between cities throughout the state.

A recommendation is being considered by the city, to provide a salary or salaries to firemen. This change in fire protection, would benefit the citizens of Silverton by a saving on fire insurance, which would amount to approximately $1000.00 annually.

A new traffic ordinance will soon be effected, whereby certain parking spaces will be reserved for the stages.
