Community Club Plans Monthly Program to Provide Entertainment

ROBERTS, Feb. 14.—(Special)—A very amusing skit entitled "The Chinese Laundry," was given by Mrs. Will Pettyjohn and George Veoll at the community club Saturday night. Other enjoyable items on the program were a reading by Mrs. Harvey Schobel and a vocal number by Miss Julia Query. A splendid program is being prepared for the next club meeting on the fourth Saturday of this month.

Mrs. William Meier served a delicious luncheon to the members of the G. T. club at her home in Salem Thursday. Those enjoying the occasion were Mrs. W. V. Johnson, Mrs. Bud Stutesman, Mrs. N. P. Kugel, Mrs. F. J. Linton, Mrs. Flora Holley, Mrs. Alice Cooldge, Mrs. C. W. Brown, Mrs. John Orsborn, Mrs. S. C. Davenport, Mrs. Forest Edwards, Mrs. Will Pettyjohn, Mrs. Roy Schobel, Mrs. C. D. Query and Mrs. Bud Stutesman will entertain at the next meeting February 21.

Tohogganing has been the most attractive recreation this past week. Each night an increasing number of young and old assemble at the hill near the Higgins home and enjoy real winter sport. On Monday night nearly forty people took part in the frolic.

Jack Henningsen spent Monday night with his mother Mrs. Julia Henningsen. Mr. Henningsen has been in Washington all winter and is in Salem this week looking after property interests.

B. D. Fidler who was operated upon for appendicitis Monday morning is getting along nicely. Preparing for New Barn

Raphael Bettincourt is preparing a foundation for a new barn which he will build on the hill south of his house.

Mrs. E. A. Goodrich, who has been very sick for some time, is improving.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams of Liberty district visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Raphael Bettincourt Sunday.

Mrs. Leonard Zielke and son, Buddy, are spending this week at Tillamook, visiting relatives.

Mr. James Fidler who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Bliss Fidler for some time, went to Jefferson Sunday where she will stay with her daughter Mrs. Maud Blackwell.

Mrs. William Faley of Albany was a week-end guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Forest Edwards.

Mrs. Jay Harnesburger and Mrs. Howard Bolger of Salem spent Sunday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Ekin.

J. D. Walling is Honor Guest at Birthday Party

LINCOLN, Feb. 14.—(Special)—J. D. Walling was guest of honor at a party given at his home Wednesday evening to celebrate his 72nd birthday anniversary. Three tables of "500" were in play, Alvin Madsen making high score. Mrs. J. D. Walling was assisted at the luncheon by Mrs. J. Fred Purvine, Mrs. Jesse Walling and Miss Georgiana Briggs.

The guest group included the guest of honor, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gerth, Mrs. Byron Harritt, Miss Jessie Harritt, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parmenter and nephew Buddy, all of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Stratton, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Walling, Mr. and Mrs. Alvin Madsen and sons Richard and Robert, Mr. and Mrs. J. Fred Purvine, Miss Georgiana Briggs, Clarence Woelk and the hostess.

COMMUNITY CLUB'S PROGRAM ENJOYED

BRUSH COLLEGE, Feb. 14.—(Special)—Brush College community club gave a program of unusual interest at its regular meeting Friday night.

Mrs. Eleanor Steiver and Mrs. Anne Irons constituted the program committee. Mrs. Irons, who is principal of the school, was in charge of the program. The children of the primary rooms have just completed their Japanese project work and gave a Japanese program. A model Japanese house, bridge and yard, made by the children were on display.

The following program was given: Twenty small girls and boys carrying fans and parasols sang a Japanese song; eight little girls in Japanese costume gave a Japanese dance; three boys gave original talks; Robert Ewing spoke on rice; Corydon Blodgett on tea and Carl Siebert on silk; little Ruth Munson gave a reading, "The Rikisha Man." Mrs. A. E. Tuttle, in costume gave a vocal number, "Japanese Love Song"; Mrs. C. L. Blodgett was official accompanist for the musical numbers.

J. B. Cray of Salem spoke on the lives of Washington and Lincoln and closed with some fine readings. L. u. c. h. e. o. n. was then served by the boys and girls of the primary room who were still in costume. Mrs. M. F. McCall and Mrs. Barbara Foch were on the refreshments committee.

CUTTING VINES GROWERS' PLAN

Loganberry Men Agree to Program Which Yields Larger Fruit

HUBBARD, Feb. 14.—(Special)—Members of the Berry Growers' association met at the city hall Wednesday afternoon to decide the question of cutting back the loganberry vines in order to get a bigger berry as demanded by the cannery associations.

The canneries require a minimum berry one inch in length and the best method of obtaining that size is an important question to the growers.

There was a large attendance and after much discussion, George Hall, the president, called for a vote on the question. Every grower present, with the exception of one, decided to try the experiment of cutting back the loganberry vines.

A servant you can depend upon!

TAKE the afternoon off, go to church on Sunday, do the many things you want to do, knowing that on your return your dinner will be beautifully cooked and ready to serve.

Armstrong ELECTRIC AUTOMATIC RANGE

The Armstrong Automatic Range "watches the clock" for you. You set the controls for the time cooking is to begin and stop and the degree of heat to be maintained. When you return, the meal is ready for the table.

You will be struck by the beauty of the Armstrong Automatic and by the absence of legs that obstruct the floor and are so hard to clean around. And it occupies but a small space, yet has ample capacity for a large family.

Come in and see this wonderful new Range that takes the worry and uncertainty out of cooking and saves your time for other things.
