

10/11

WEDNESDAY

THE WAR ON DRUGS

On their new album, A Deeper Understanding, The War on Drugs take cues from classic-rock radio but stretches and swirls those reference points into transfixing, kaleidoscopic funnel clouds of nostalgia. The Schnitz, 1037 SW Broadway, 503-248-4335, portland5.com/arlene-schnitzer-concert-hall. 8 pm. $29.50-$45. All ages. See Top 5, page 30.

ALL JANE COMEDY FESTIVAL

Portland's all-woman comedy festival will become the first comedy festival to live-stream its sets. But you can see it IRL, starting with DeAnne Smith, who's best known for her bit about dating women who've decided it's easier to pretend to be a lesbian than deal with straight dudes. Curious Comedy Theater, 5225 NE Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd., alljanecomedy.com. 7:30 pm. $15.

10/12

THURSDAY

PARIS, TEXAS

What better way to honor the late, great Harry Dean Stanton than with a movie that's mostly about his weathered face? The story of a semi-mute, estranged father named Travis is full of lonely LA and West Texas scenery, and Ry Cooder's gorgeous slide guitar score. Hollywood Theatre, 4122 NE Sandy Blvd., hollywoodtheatre.org. 7:30 pm. $9.

PORTLAND TANGO FESTIVAL

The longest-running tango festival in America returns with four nights of sultry Argentinian dancing, including all-night milongas every damn night. The Norse Hall, 111 NE 11th Ave., 503-972-3329, portlandtangofest.com. $10-$35 for individual dances through Sunday.

10/13

FRIDAY

PROTOMARTYR

On their new album, Relatives in Descent, Protomartyr's ominous post-punk swaps danceability for dread. But thanks to singer-ranter Joe Casey's fuck-it-all attitude, the whole thing attains an offbeat charm. Doug Fir Lounge, 830 E Burnside St., 503-231-9663, dougfirounge.com. 9 pm. $15. 21+.

WHERE WE'LL BE THROWING BALLS AT STRANGERS' HEADS AND STARING AT HARRY DEAN STANTON'S FACE THIS WEEK.
OCT. 11-17

PORTLAND TATTOO EXPO

Whether you're getting a tat or looking at tats or entering your tat in a contest, there will be even more tats than normal in Portland this weekend. Apparently, a couple is even getting married there. They have tats. Portland Expo Center, 2060 N Marine Dr., portlandtattooexpo.com. $20-$40, Through Sunday. All ages.

10/14

SATURDAY

TWO-MINUTE FILM FESTIVAL

The second year of the North Portland Unknown Film Festival ends with a screening of the shortest, strangest films you've never heard of. With dozens of microfilms that could be about literally anything, it'll be a deluge from the underworld of independent film. Dissecta Contemporary Arts Center, 8371 N Interstate Ave., north-portlandunknown.com. 9:30 pm. $5.

PRO/AM FESTIVAL

Pro brewers and cidemakers team with amateurs to make 32 one-off, crazy-ass drinks including a Great Notion grape hazy IPA, sake-barrel-aged beer by a Japanese brewer and an open-fermented Hefe from Upright. Taste all 32 beers and ciders for $28. District East, 2305 SE 9th Ave., Bit.ly/TicketsProAm2017. 1-6 pm. $28. ($55 VIP at noon.)

10/15

SUNDAY

PORTLAND HIP-HOP DAY

For the third year, hip-hop is coming to the steps of City Hall. Well, weather permitting—last year got rained out. Rasheed Jamal, Fontaine, viral wunderkind Wynne and Brookfield Duece, a.k.a. Damian Lillard's cousin, will represent, whether indoors or outdoors. Portland City Hall, 1221 SW 4th Ave. #340. 3 pm. Free. All ages.

PORTLAND PUERTO RICO FUNDRAISER

The president doesn't give a shit about helping Puerto Rico. Luckily, there's an easy way for us to, with a fundraiser featuring Latin food, Puerto Rican music and an auction. All proceeds go to Puerto Rico. Crystal Ballroom, 1332 W Burnside St., helpisonthewaypuertorico.com. 12-5 pm. $25. All ages.

10/16

MONDAY

AFGHAN WHIGS

After a 16-year break, Afghan Whigs made an unexpected return in 2014, and things went well enough that they decided to keep going. This year's In Spades keeps their soulful alt-rock sound alive while taking on new, goth-like eeriness. Wonder Ballroom, 128 NE Russell St., 503-284-8686, wonderballroom.com. 8:30 pm. $33. 21+.

PICK-UP DODGEBALL

There's a lot to be angry about. Channel that aggression in a healthy way as you dip, duck, dive and dodge with a bunch of strangers, commitment-free. Beaumont Middle School, 4043 NE Fremont St., recesstimesports.com. 6:30-8:30 pm. $5, cash only. All ages.

10/17

TUESDAY

ANIMATING LIFE: LAIKA

Portland Art Museum is paying tribute to the pride of Oregon animation. The exhibit will give a behind-the-scenes look at the Hillsboro company that created the likes of Coraline and ParaNorman with entirely handmade sets and props. Portland Art Museum, 1219 SW Park Ave., portlandartmuseum.org. Through May 20. $19.

CHRISTOPHER KIMBALL

Former Cook's Illustrated editor and America's Test Kitchen star Christopher Kimball will be live onstage at the Aladdin, showing off food demonstrations and kitchen bloopers at his new Milk Street Live show. Aladdin Theater, 3017 SE Milwaukie Ave., 503-234-9694, aladdin-theater.com. 7 pm. $45-$95.
