WASHINGTON WAGON ROAD
.....FROM.....
Portland to the Cascades.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the traveling public that the above named Wagon Road is now in traveling order for light loaded wagons, from the mouth of SANDY TO CASCADES. Persons wishing to travel from Portland to the Dalles, will find it to their advantage to cross the Columbia River at the mouth of Sandy and haul their wagons over this Road to the Cascades, as it will save the price of freight on the lower steamboat, and also over the Cascades railroad. There is a good trail from the Cascades to the Dalles for loose stock, crossing the river back again near Little White Salmon. Ferries are now kept at both these crossings. From and after the 15th of February next, the undersigned will keep the above Ferries in connection with the Road, and will pass the travel through as cheap as any other route. There being better grass, less rocks, and generally a better Road on this route, I flatter myself that I will receive a liberal patronage from Drivers and Packers. In addition to the O. S. N. Co.'s steamer, the steamer Gladiolus is running from the Cascades to the Dalles, and will carry wagons cheap.

Rates of Toll over the Road:
For each wagon, with two horses, mules, or oxen.....$1 00
For each additional pair of horses, mules or oxen..... 50
For horse and buggy..... 75
For each additional horse..... 25
For each man and horse..... 50
For each pack animal, other than sheep hogs or goats..... 25
For sheep, hogs or goats, each..... 06
B. C. HARDY, Proprietor.

We, the undersigned Immigrants, hereby certify that we passed over E. C. Hardy's Wagon Road, on or about the 28th day of September, 1863, with the Bethel Train of thirty-four wagons; and do consider said Road a good Mountain Road for light loaded wagons.
