

THURSDAY MORNING, NOV. 30, 1865.

The people of Owyhee look upon their new church with "pious pride."

ALL persons in San Francisco are compelled by law to be vaccinated or suffer fine or imprisonment.

It is said that Judge McBride will resign the Supreme Judgeship of Idaho Territory soon.

JAMES ULLMAN, who killed a colored man at Idaho City about a year ago, has been acquitted.

A MOVEMENT is on foot in Owyhee to fit out a party of one hundred men to go against the Snake Indians up the Malheur and Owyhee rivers.

MR. PATTERSON, a son-in-law of Andrew Johnson, and Senator elect from Tennessee, took the oath of allegiance to the Southern Confederacy, and held the office of Circuit Judge under that defunct institution. He has been pardoned.

VERY LIBERAL.—A local writer in the Idaho World says that in Boise there is a demand for four hundred of Mr. Mercer's lady immigrants. If the Boise men are in earnest they had better be on hand by the time the Continental arrives at Seattle, with a speaking-trumpet, or else they will have but a slender chance of getting even one of God's best gifts.

THE JOHN W. FORNEY LODGE.—This is the title, says the Owyhee Avalanche, of a new discovery made on the southern slope of War Eagle Mountain, by Barney Green, John G. Watson and Adam Conrad. The discovery was made Saturday, 11th inst., and contains a ledge of about eight inches in thickness. A claim of eight hundred feet was located by the above named parties. The quartz shows free gold in considerable quantities, and also sulphurets of silver.

OWYHEE QUARTZ MILLS.—Before last August there were running in the Owyhee mines one eight-stamp mill, one of five and one of ten stamps. Since then the following mills have either arrived or been completed:

STAMPS.
Shoenbar Mill—finished	10
Moore & Vase	4
N. Y. & O. G. & S. M. Co.	20
Sinclair Co	20
Grenzeback's	10
Jackson	10
Cosmos	10

Total..... 84

To these add 23 stamps, and there are now in Owyhee 107 stamps, which will all be in full operation by Spring.

ROBBERY.—Some scoundrel has robbed the smallpox hospital east of town of thirty-six pairs of blankets, beds, pillows, cooking utensils, and all the conveniences which it contained.—There is much apprehension that the bedding will be taken off and sold to houses of entertainment up the country, and thus the dreadful scourge of smallpox will be let loose on the country. The bedding was all carefully washed and fumigated, but these precautions constitute no security against the spread of the disease. It is quite certain that the theft was not committed by Indians, as they are in mortal dread of the smallpox, and know that the building was used as a pest-house.

CALEB LYON OF LYONSDALE.—Since the return of Gov. Caleb, of Lyonsdale, the Lyon of Idaho Territory, a very spirited contest has been going on between some of the representative men of the two political parties as to who is to have and hold his gubernatorial lionship for the purpose of "running" him. Like Andrew Johnson, he is claimed as the special friend of both parties, and like his chief, must be content to wait until both or either of them "come to him." The Democratic aspirants for the honor of managing the Governor, make a very strong point against their opponents, by giving prominence to the fact that much pleasure was felt among them when it was rumored that Wm. H. Wallace, of Fort Laramie notoriety, had succeeded him (Caleb of the Dale) in office. The Unionists retort by the usual expressions, and declare that they never loved Wallace. And so the Governor is left in doubt which party loves him best. In the meantime he has issued a proclamation of thanksgiving, which is quite as much a literary curiosity as his Lewiston message.

ARRIVED.—The remains of George Garber, the Orderly Sergeant of Co. "G," First Oregon Cavalry, arrived at Fort Dalles yesterday evening. Sergeant Garber was one time a citizen of this place, and bore a high reputation as a man of spirit and good feeling. He entered the service from the highest motives of patriotism, and won the reputation of being a thorough soldier. He had recommended himself to all with whom he was connected in the service, and only needed a wider field to have become conspicuous. In the battle in which he was mortally wounded he fought for some time after he was hurt. He was brought back to Camp Watson, where he died on the 18th inst., the day following the fight. His thoughts were evidently about his duty to the last moment, as his last words were to order the bugle to sound to change the guards. He will be taken to Vancouver for burial.

THE SPECIAL ELECTION.—We have a report which we deem reliable, about the result of the election in Grant County. We give the majorities, as follows:

PRECINCTS.	HOGUE.	GATES.
Canyon City.....	9	00
John Day City.....	00	28
Marysville.....	00	3
Camp Watson.....	61	60
Union.....	12	00

Totals..... 82 31

From this it appears Mr. Hogue's majority in the part of Grant County which is included in the Fifteenth District is 51; and as Col. Gates received 43 majority in Wasco County, Mr. Hogue is elected by eight votes. The official returns will be needed to determine the question.

SPORTING INTELLIGENCE.—Some "sports" visited the military post at Dun Glen, Nevada, after pay-day, hoping to make a "raise" from the soldiers, who were very "flash." They opened on "faro" with a $2000 "starter," and the soldiers "took in their finances" very suddenly. The "sports" played on until they had "soaked" their six-shooters, jewelry and "faro-tools" for more than they were worth, when they left poorer and wiser men. The soldiers invite any gentleman who is on the "sport" to come to Dun Glen.
