

Daily Mountaineer.

Epitome of Telegraphic News.

[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO NOVEMBER 23.

The Mercury says the representative of the American Government at this port has been since the arrival of this vessel, in communication with the Cu tom authorities...

The French Government had a prosecution against the Opinion Nationale for spreading news about Mexico calculated to disturb the public peace.

The Times continued to disparage the Russell Cabinet, and says it would almost seem as if there must be an interval of disorganization...

Meetings have been held in Manchester and Paris in aid of the emancipated negroes in the United States.

New York, Nov. 21.—The steamship China from Liverpool the 11th, and Queenstown the 12th, has arrived.

The pirate Shenandoah has been handed over to the U. S. Consul and will be sent to New York Her captain and crew were unconditionally discharged.

Additional correspondence between Minister Adams and Earl Russell has been published. The latter says that every representation of the American Minister was immediately considered and properly referred to the law officers.

The supplement to the London Gazette contains further additional correspondence between Mr. Adams and Earl Russell, relative to the departure of cruisers for the rebels from England.

The London Times says it is impossible for the American Government to abandon the claims for the depredations of the Alabama, but it is quite possible for a Government to yield nothing, yet do nothing.

Capt. Waddell, in his letter to Earl Russell, which is now published, says: "In obedience to orders I found myself in the Arctic and Ochotsk seas, far away from ordinary channels of commerce, and in consequence of this awkward circumstance, was engaged in acts of war until the 28th of June."

THE DALLES AND VANCOUVER ROAD.—The idea of building a road from Dalles to Vancouver, for the purpose of facilitating movements of live stock up and down the river, and particularly to benefit immigrants moving with considerable quantities of stock, is now much discussed at Vancouver.

The Springfield, Mass., Republican thinks that Jeff. Davis ought to be tried, convicted and sentenced to be hung, and then paroled. A. This is to be for the sake of example, and to make treason odious.
