EMIGRANTS FOR TILLAMOOK.—Tillamook seems to be getting her share of the new emigrants. It is said that over fifty families have gone over into Tillamook valley this fall, and yet there is room for many more. There is now a good trail leading from Simmons' ranch, near the head of Panther creek, in Yamhill county, across the coast chain of mountains. The trip can be made across on horseback in a day. No wagon road is yet opened, but those who have traveled over the trail say a good road can be made. There is a toll gate on the trail, where one dollar is collected of each man and horse, that is if the pioneer doesn't dodge the toll gatherer, as they not unfrequently do to save their dollar. Astoria Gazette.

PASSENGERS by the Constitution report meeting a French steamer coming out of Acapulco to bring down from Mazatlan a full regiment to assist in attacking Alvarez's forces, who were starving out of town. Eggs were four dollars per dozen and other articles in proportion. Alvarez had had two thousand men, indifferently armed, but well posted in mountains.
