UNDER THE THORN.

Sweet was the breath of the hawthorn bush That blew in the briery lawe. And tender the vesper song the thrush Poured forthin low refrain; And tenderly smiled the curring lips That never shall smile sgain.

The breath of the hawthorn's snowy bloom
Fell faint on the happy air,
And the gay wild bird sang on unbeard
In the hush of love's low prayer;
And the sun west down, but the twilight flush
Lovingly lingered there

Again I stand by the blooming thorn,
And muse of the wasted years,
And I sigh for the day so far away,
And its tender hopes and fears—
And I morn that the world has brought me back
With a heart too hard for tears.—John Hay.

New Orleans, Nov. 29 .- Gov. Wells' message to the Legislature was ready. He says Louisiana's loyalty has been renewed without reservation, and she accepts with alacrity the new order of things. He also urges especially the election of a U.S. Senator, and recommends the Legislature to pay all accrued interest without severe taxation. The enactment of laws rege ulating the labor system allowing the parties interested to make their own terms, asks that all impediments to immigration be removed, urges a perfeet organization of State militia, recommends that all taxes received on colored people for educational purposes be devoted to the education of dan class exclusively. He says the present lays great stress on the course of Louisiana, and is anxious that she should take her place in the Union. He invites the Legislature to unite with the executive authorities of the State in fresh evidence that Louisiana is determined to stand or fall with Johnson's reconstruction policy.

New York, Nov. 28 .- The Commercial's Washington dispatch says there is good reason for believing that Sec retary McCalloch recommends the steady funding of the debt with the regular withdrawal of greenbacks, which must cause a contraction of National Bank circulation.

Richmond, Nov. 27 -Gen. Grant freely expressed his opinion in regard to Mexican affairs. He said emphatically that the advent of Maximilian to the pretended throne of Mexico was a part of the rebellion and his expulsion shall be a part of it. France did not ask our consent to his establishment on the throne, and we should not consult that power in re establish ing a republic. He said if France should choose to interfere in this ques tion-if she chooses to involve herself in a war with the United States, this is the time, while our army is yet organized.

The Tribune's special dispatch has information to the effect that the re lations of our government with France and England are entirely satisfactory. There is no probability of a serious disturbance. Napoleon's speculation on Max, is very unpopular with the French, and he will withdraw as soon as he can without compromising his

Boston, Dec. 1.—A Convention of the colored people of New England, is in session here, for the purpose of hav ing the Constitution of the United States so altered as to fix a great qualification on voters, and to look to other matters concerning the colored man, and his status in the land. C. L. Remond is President of the Convention, which is largely attended.
