ORIGIN OF POLITICAL TERMS .- The terms "Whig" and Tory' were known in the reign of Charles II. Some writers derive the word "Whig" from "Whaig," the Scotch for "whey" aname applies to bandits and drovers, and "Tory" from "foory" (Irish) applied to beggars and outlaws. Others say that "Whig" is formed from the motto of the Puritans, "We hope in God," and "Troy" from a "Tar a-ri," pronounced "Tory," meaning "Come, O King" -an exclamation much used by the Irish adherents of Charles II. Toe word "Radical" arose about the year 1818, and "Conservative" about the year 1860.

ABOUT ADVERTISING .- The following very sensible remark we copy from the Louisiana Flag. It is true, and to the point: "We cannot censure a man in business who dose not advertise if he has nothing worth advertisman who puts out his sign in a news paper, and is not ashamed of his goods, can always furnish a better quality at lower prices than those who, either though shame or penuriousness, never let the public know what they are

In 1654, a trial took place in Connecticut under the section of the bluelaws prohibiting kissing. The offenders were Sarah Tuttle and Jacob Newton. It appears that Sarah dropped her gloves, and Jacob found them. When Sarah asked for them, Jacob demanded a kiss for his pay, and, as the domand did not seem extravagent, she allowed it forthwith. The facts were clearly proved, and the parties were each fined twenty shillings.
