

Congressional.

In the House, Dec. 20.—Stevens, of Pennsylvania, made a speech on reconstruction, arguing that the lately rebellious states must come back into the Union as new States, or remain as conquered provinces.

Senate.—The Commercial's Washington dispatch says the indications that Congress will revoke the City Charter of Washington, to make the District of Columbia a Territory, with a delegate in the House.

Mr. Wilson called up the Senate bill to maintain the freedom of the inhabitants of the States lately in rebellion.

Mr. Sumner addressed the Senate in favor of the bill. When he thought of what occurred in this chamber yesterday, in heated temper, to white-wash the unhappy condition of the rebel States, he felt that they ought to speak of nothing else to-day.

Morrill, of the Committee of Ways and Means, reported a bill authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to appoint Assistant Assessors of Internal Revenue. Passed.

Stevens, of Pennsylvania, introduced a bill to pay pensions and damages done to Union property by rebels, out of confiscated property. Referred to Committee of the Whole.

Lawrence, of Ohio, submitted a resolution, which was laid on the table, affirming that Jeff. Davis should be tried and punished for treason, and also, on account of the starving of prisoners.

Banks reported an amendment to the rules, recognizing as officers of the House the reporters of the Globe. A debate ensued, and the subject was sent to the Judiciary Committee to enquire whether there was any existing contract between the House and the publishers of the Globe, it having been contended that such an arrangement interfered with private rights.

The House concurred in the conference which reported to adjourn over the holidays, from to-morrow till the 5th of January.

THE OLDEST WOMAN IN NEW ENGLAND.—There is now living at Harvard probably the oldest person in New England of whose birth and age there is authentic record. This is Mrs. Rebecca Huss, who was born in Groton, in 1750—106 years ago—according to the record of the first parish of that town, where the original entry of her birth at that date may be seen.
