TELEGRAPHIC COMMUNICATION RESTORED.—The Memphis Bulletin of Nov. 26, says, last night, for the first time in ten years, telegraphic communication was held between New York and New Orleans. The first message transmitted from New York to New Orleans was as follows: "Weather clear and pleasant. Time, 8:55." The answer returned was: "Weather clear and cool. Time, 7:50." Another dispatch from New-York was followed by thirty-one messages from New Orleans to New-York occupying about forty minutes, each message averaging twenty words. This length of line has been worked only once before, and that was between San Francisco and New York a few months ago. The only success attending which was the transmission of a few words. This leaves the credit to the stretch of the line between New Orleans and New York of being the longest over which any business has ever been done in this country.

WIPE THEM OUT!—The Chico Courant has "blood in its eye." It suggests the holding of a Convention of all the counties interested to effect an organization for wiping out the savages that infest the Humboldt and Owyhee country. It remarks that there are 500 men that only ask to be furnished with supplies, and they will put a stop to Indian depredations and massacres. It is generally remarked that regular soldiers are not just the kind of an organization to hunt Indians—it wants scouts and bushwhackers. San Francisco, Sacramento, Yuba, and the counties north to, and including Siskiyou are interested in the matter. Let the Convention of delegates from the counties levy an assessment on each county for the purpose of furnishing supplies, and elect a commissary to see that the supplies are properly used. The force is to be paid in the plunder which they may save from the savages.

A KISS UNDESERVED.—A diffident Hartford bachelor went to the seashore in August to seek refuge from the loneliness of his celibacy, and one dark evening, enjoying the breeze on the piazza of his hotel, happened to take a seat that had just been vacated by the husband of a loving wife, with whom the happy man had been chatting. In a few moments the lady returned, and, mistaking the stranger for her husband, lovingly encircled his neck and gave him an affectionate kiss with the remark, "Come, darling, is it not about time to retire?"

A Monroe (Louisiana) paper speaks encouragingly of the prospects of cotton planting in that section. Planters are disposed to give the freedmen a fair chance. The same paper says, a large number of emigrants from Alabama and the contiguous States are going to Texas.

The national council of Switzerland, in the course of its revision of the constitution, has proclaimed liberty of conscience to be inviolable, and has guaranteed the free exercise of religion to all sects or communities.

In Scotland a minister refused the sacrament to a printer who was engaged during a part of Sunday night in producing a paper which the minister confessed that he read with pleasure every Monday morning.
