

Daily Mountaineer.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JAN. 17, 1866.

It is said that the late rebel Beauregard has been offered the post of Commander-in-Chief of the Pontifical Zouaves at Rome.

A LITTLE girl in Marysville, on being asked what made her cheeks so extraordinarily red, wisely replied: "Oh, I've just had a beau!"

This city of Chicago has been mulcted in $14,000 for damage, resulting from a defective sidewalk.

BATTLE monuments are being erected on all the great battle fields. The latest named is at Fredericksburg.

A LADY asked a sailor why a ship was called "she," and Jack replied, "Because it costs so much for her rigging."

THE connection by steamer from Portland to Dalles, was made yesterday for the first time since the 13th of December last.

ISH Tallisa, the head chief of the Kansas tribe of Indians, killed himself lately, by over eating.

AMONG the members of Congress elect from New Orleans, is the veteran banker of that city, Jacob Barker. He is now about eighty-seven years of age.

COL. Markland, the Special Postal Agent for the Pacific Coast, has returned to California, without having visited the Columbia River interior.

THE San Francisco Flag asks: "When the Fenians go to war, how in the world do they expect to form themselves into squares?" By squaring the circles, as a matter of course.

CAMP LANDER, located three miles south of old Fort Hall, is garrisoned by thirty-two men of the First Oregon Infantry. On the 23d of November no snow had fallen at that point.

THERE are six hundred men working on the line of the Pacific Railroad, west from Omaha City. About twenty-five miles of the track is laid, and the work is going on rapidly.

THE Mormon Bishops have determined to excommunicate all the women who oppose polygamy. The girls like the movement very much.

THE story that the wife of Senator Richardson, of Illinois, went south during the rebellion, as an agent for the Knights of the Golden Circle, turns out to be untrue.

THE Bey of Tunis lately decided one hundred and fifty-five law cases in three hours. He is "tastest" judge on record; the next in the matter of speed is "Alec," of Idaho.

A "Champion Cue" is spoken of as a prize to the best billiard player in the United States. It is also proposed to offer a "champion-queer" for the best bob-tailed, fighting dog in the United States.

THE story about the early dishonesty of Judah P. Benjamin, late rebel Secretary of War, is again going the rounds of the press. It is already a "thrice told tale," and has lost none of its details by being told so often.

THE Spanish Americans of San Francisco have prepared medals valued at $200 each, for presentation to Generals Corona and Rales, for their defense of Mexico against French invasion.

POLYGAMY IN IDAHO.—The Mormons have boiled over outside of the jurisdiction of Utah into Oneida county, Idaho Territory. A letter from there contains the following on this point:

Thus far little has been done to bring this section into public notice, bordering, as it does, so closely on the Mormon hierarchy, whose foetid breath falls like a mildew on everything christian-like or moral that passes under its shadow. It has lawlessly passed the limits of its own corrupt jurisdiction, and dared to pollute the sacred soil of Idaho with its polygamic poison, hurling defiance in the very teeth of civil authority. This, however, will not continue. The "institution," if allowed to exist at all, shall coil its slimy folds within its own territorial lines, obtaining sanction from its own corrupt legislation.—Idaho will not be responsible either to God or the nation in the sanction of such an immoral and sacrilegious system.

If it could be shown that Brigham Young, (or any of the polygamists,) has been in Idaho Territory with two or more of his wives, he may be reclaimed, and upon conviction, imprisoned for it. It would be a pious idea if this matter were looked into a little.

NEWS OF THE INTERIOR IN DETAIL.

The annexation movement appears to be gaining ground at Walla Walla. A petition from the citizens of that valley to Congress will probably secure the segregation of that county from Washington Territory, and confer on them the benefits arising from our State government. The matter should at once be acted upon, and a counter-memorial from the Territorial Legislature will be of no effect, even if it is sent forward.

The arrival of Mr. Major's ox-team train of seven hundred yoke of cattle, at Boise City, is noted. The train was loaded with machinery for South Boise and Owyhee.

In the month of November, 3,250 tons of rock from the Gould & Curry mine in Washoe, yielded $135,000; being a fraction over $41.50 a ton. This is a poor showing alongside of the $298 a ton from the Owyhee lodes.

The snow is about seven feet deep on the Cour d'Alene Mountains through which the Mullan road passes.

It is feared that several persons were lost in the great storm, while coming from Montaña to Walla Walla.

The boat which is intended for the navigation of the upper section of Snake River, is progressing rapidly. It is being built at the mouth of Boise River.

Governor Lyon gave an elegant entertainment to his friends at Boise City, on Christmas night. The Governor is gradually wearing out the democracy of Idaho, by his courtesy and conciliatory disposition.

Mr. P. J. Malone's Idaho Argus will not be issued until spring, as he has been unable to get his material from the Columbia River.

A soldier, named Shay, was shot at Fort Boise, on New Year's day, for mutinous conduct. He is likely to recover.

During the heavy fall of snow in Idaho, great exertions were made to keep the road from Boise City to Idaho City open. Ten teams were continually employed in traveling back and forth on the road.

It is not considered "gentlemanly" in Boise any longer, for gentlemen to go to dancing-parties with six shooters and bowie knives on their belts. Derringers are, however, allowed to the high-toned.

THE STAGE AND THE PULPIT.—The Rev. Dr. Hatfield, of Chicago, lately preached a sermon against theatres, in which he said that he had been unable to learn of any actresses of "unsuspected good character."

He might have said, in addition, that if any man will go nosing around among blackguards, or even among rigidly righteous persons, that he can always find some volunteer censor of public morals who will have something to say against the best woman on earth. Taking this method of determining the question, it would be quite impossible to find any man or woman of "unsuspected good character" in the world. A few evenings after the reverend gentleman had uttered his silly diatribe against the stage, Mrs. Cowell, an actress, was called before the curtain at McVicar's theatre; when she improved the occasion to refute his vile absurdities. In doing so she was cheered enthusiastically by a large and intelligent audience. It is to the point to state that a few weeks before, at the same theatre, two "swell-dressed" gentlemen had been arrested as "suspicious characters," but both were released when it was known that they were eminent clergymen of the city. One of them was the same who made the attack on theatres, and particularly actresses. It is a charitable supposition that his business, in lurking about the green-room, was to find an actress of "unsuspected good character," or else to determine the truth of his theory in regard to the non-existence of such.

Some of the miners just down from Black-foot exhibit weighty proofs of the richness of the mines in that direction, in the shape of nuggets ranging from a few dollars to several ounces. The pieces from McClellan's Gulch appear to have the advantage; as to average weight, smoothness and solidity. In that locality the largest piece yet found is $540, which is certainly large enough if there is only enough of them.

A pretty waiter girl, in San Francisco, "played" an honest miner for $5,000, and then dropped him. Desperate from the loss of his money and the effects of his degrading passion, he shot the woman, and then blew out what little brains he was possessed of. The girl will recover to enjoy her ill-gotten wealth.

ANOTHER RIVAL IN THE FIELD.—The Montaña Post claims that the Branch Mint ought to be located somewhere in Montaña Territory, and argues with a plentiful lack of knowledge of the relative importance of the Montaña mines and those of the Columbia Basin, that its location in that territory would better serve the public interest than if it were placed in Oregon, or Idaho. At the same time we concede the importance of having a mint in Montaña, we will tell our contemporary on "yonder side" how to get it without drawing invidious distinctions, or creating unnecessary rivalries. Our plan is this: There is now the necessary apparatus at Denver to coin five millions a-year. Where it is now located, it is of little use, as the coinage for the last year was a little under half a million. If the people of Montaña will move to have the Branch Mint at Denver located in the centre of their territory, they will probably succeed.
