Epitome of Telegraphic News.

DATES TO JANUARY 8. Chicago, Jan 8.—A Washington dispatch to the Chicago Tribune says: The resolution adopted in the House to-day, expressing the opinion that the troops should not be withdrawn from the Southern States until Congress had investigated their condition and decided on the future of these States as regards their restoration to the Union, developed nearly an unbroken front among the Republican majority.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The appointment of a sub-committee by the joint committee on reconstruction, consisting of two members of the Senate and one of the House, to wait upon the President, is regarded as significant of the intention of the committee with reference to the admission of the Tennessee delegation.

When Jeff. Davis and Reagan were captured, there was found upon the latter's person some $50,000 of bills of exchange on Rothschild's, drawn by Trenchholm. These, together with some others, amounting to upwards of $100,000, were sent to our Consular Agent at London for collection. They have recently been returned by him to the Secretary of the Treasury with an indorsement on the back by the Rothschilds that there was no funds to meet them. It is alleged by persons who know that there were plenty of funds when the bills were drawn, but by means the money has been spirited away.

Raymond, of New York, introduced a bill for the appointment of a commission to purchase a site for, and erect a Postoffice in the city of New York.

Memphis, Jan. 7.—The Bulletin says the Mississippi river is rapidly effacing the monuments of the war along its banks. Island No. 10 has disappeared. The height of which Fort Pillow stood is rapidly disappearing, and the great earthworks at Randolph are all gone.

Nashville, Jan. 8.—The Legislature assembled to-day. The political programme includes a new and more efficient franchise law to exclude rebel votes from the polls, and the passage of law allowing negro testimony in the courts. The latter measure was postponed until after the recess, and was deferred, in order that members might consult their constituents. Events have been favorable to the most decided legislation.

A meeting will be held to-morrow night of the Union Central Committee, who will send a memorial to the President describing affairs in Tennessee, and earnestly entreating that the protection of the troops be not withdrawn. It is said they will even advise again the admission of the Tennessee Congressmen, if that measure is to be followed up by the withdrawal of the troops. Outrages by returned rebels and collisions with discharged loyal soldiers are of too frequent occurrence for specification.

On Friday last, Gov. Brownlow, en route from Knoxville to this city by railroad, was wrecked eighty miles from Knoxville, and had his foot and ankle bruised. The car in which the Governor rode was separated from the train and thrown from the track and several other persons therein were injured.

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 8.—The Legislature met in joint convention this afternoon, to hear the farewell message of ex-Gov. Miller and the inaugural of Gov. Marshall. Gov. Miller's message represents that the affairs of the State are in a prosperous condition. He recommends an amendment to the State Constitution, giving the right of suffrage to all who can read and write the English language. He reports 210 miles of railroad in operation and suggests further legislation to aid the roads. Gov. Marshall's inaugural repeats the recommendation in relation to the suffrage, and favors the same principle for the national constitution. He says Minnesota will not consent to the admission of the rebel States until they give full security.

Washington, Jan. 7.—There is not a particle of foundation for the report that Chief Justice Chase asked for the pardon of young Ketchum. The President yesterday signed a patent granting 45,500 acres of land to the Central Pacific Railroad.

There was received last week at the Treasury Department, over a million and a half in legal tender notes, $297,660 in gold securities, $225,858 in fractional currency, and $466,449 in certificates of indebtedness.

Col. W. H. Blake, the United States consul at Manzanillo, it is supposed, has been murdered. He killed a sailor, (justifiably it is said by his friends, but by others it is described as a cold-blooded murder,) and it is thought his life has been taken in revenge.
