Epitome of Telegraphic News.

COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.

DATES TO JANUARY 13.

Washington, Jan. 6.—John Minor Botts has come out to a card denying that he has sought to prevent the admission of the Virginia members. He says he has maintained that every representative constitutionally elected who is prepared to comply with the requisitions of the Constitution and laws is as fully entitled to take his seat as those now occupying seats.

It is stated that Horace Greeley had an interview with the President. The latter expressed to Greeley his desire to avoid any rupture with the Union party.

No less than fourteen names are on the Speaker's list for elaborate speeches on reconstruction. Members of the Cabinet emphatically deny that the President has issued any orders stopping appointments upon the recommendation of members of Congress.

During the week ending to-day, $2,709,000 in national currency were issued. The total circulation now is $240,000,000.

A petition will be introduced next week to discharge the reconstruction committee from the further consideration of the credentials of the Tennessee Senators, and for referring them to the judiciary committee.

Washington, Jan. 7.—The reconstruction committee met yesterday in the room of the Senate Pacific Railroad Committee. All the members were present excepting Hall, Bingham and Gridon. They passed a resolution that their proceedings should be kept secret and did nothing more but indulge in general conversation which developed decidedly radical ideas.

Washington, Jan. 7.—Official news from the city of Chihuahua to December has been received here. President Juarez entered upon his new term without opposition, except that one General made a protest against the extension of the term, and went over to the French side.

An extensive fraud upon the Internal Revenue Department by the issue of large quantities of counterfeit cigar box stamps has just been brought to light by the authorities of this city. Persons named John Fuch, Charles Mitchering and a printer named Blomka have been arrested.

A meeting of the adherents of the Monroe doctrine was held in Cooper Institute last night. Letters were read from a number of distinguished men, and addresses were made by William Cullen Bryant and others.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The select committee of both Houses to devise suitable means to testify national respect for the late President Lincoln, had a meeting this forenoon and selected George Bancroft to deliver the eulogy in February next, in place of E. M. Stanton, declined.

Among the prominent names mentioned in connection with the Supreme Judgeship are Newell Houston and Judge Trigg, of Tenn.

New York, Jan. 13.—A new counterfeit of the fifty cent fractional currency has been discovered.

From recent indications it is not probable that universal suffrage will be conferred on the blacks of the District of Columbia.

Washington, Jan. 13.—Dr. Reinhold, formerly Assistant Register of the United States Treasury, died yesterday.

General Mulford having turned over to the Commissary General of provisions such money as he succeeded in recovering from the rebel prison keepers, out of the funds sent to our soldiers in captivity appropriated by the former parties, the same is now ready for distribution.
