THE CITY TRADE.

THE DALLES, Oregon, Jan. 20th, 1866.

Apprehensions of a short supply of flour are felt, in view of the stoppage of navigation again. As yet, however, there is no advance in the price of it from last week.

The through trip made by the steamer last week, was the means of bringing to this place considerable quantities of several articles, of which there was great need.

Coal-oil has again advanced to $2,50 per gallon.

Our quotations are corrected to date:

HUMAN remains were lately found in Pleasant Valley, Nevada County, California, which were identified as the remains of an Italian, who was murdered in 1857. His wife made the recognition by the hair, in which birds had taken up their abode, lining their nests with the curly locks.

TURKEY has been startled by the rumor of a great innovation perpetrated by the Sultan. It is said that he is having his portrait printed by a French artist, M. Guillemet. Hitherto all representations of the human form have been deemed profane by the true Mahometans.

THE immortal old frigate Constitution, on her recent voyage from Newport to Annapolis, notwithstanding her age, passed everything on her route, going at the rate of thirteen and a half knots an hour, and acted as though she would like to have another bout with her old foes.

IT is stated that the government is selling the hospital bedding and fixtures about Washington, and that the hotel-keepers are purchasing these articles for use in business. This is a good way to spread a pestilence over the land.

THE honest miners of Diamond District have awarded Gov. Lyon of Lyonsdale, four diamond claims. He tickles the honest miners with fine words and they tickle him with a shower of diamonds and silver bricks.

THE University buildings of Washington Territory, located at Seattle, are built of wood; which is a sinful waste of funds, intended to endow an institution to last as long as American civilization shall endure.

MR. JUGGONATH SUNKERSETT, the head of the Hindoo community, died recently in Bombay. He was buried, or rather burned, with the usual Hindoo rites, amid a large throng of mourning relatives and friends.

IT is said that the Siwashes were the only people at Olympia who celebrated Christmas in a proper manner. The superior race acted as if there were none among them who had a soul to save.

BRIGHAM YOUNG lately said he was prepared to fight the United States, and would send the boys in blue "to the infernal regions across lots," if they interfered too much with the Saints.

Miss Annie Dickinson, the Woman's Rights expounderess, is opposed to marriage. The reason is supposed to be that she has never received any eligible offer.

No new Congressional apportionment can be made until 1872, without an amendment of the Constitution.

RAPHAEL SEMMES, the Confederate captain, pleads that he cannot be held for acts of war against the United States prior to his parole by Gen. Sherman.

THE Nevada Gazette says there is a prospect of a rush of miners from that place for Montana Territory, next spring.

BIERSTADT'S picture, "The Rocky Mountains," has been sold for $25,000, to be taken to England.

MR. ISH announces his intention to put on a line of coaches from White Bluffs to Montana, if the road is properly improved.

WORK in the Flint District, Owyhee, is being carried on energetically with good results.

Secretary McCulloch strenuously opposes the taxation of United States securities by the States.

THE weather has been sufficiently cold at The Emporium to produce fine skating on the ponds.
