Epitome of Telegraphic News. [COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JANUARY 19. New York, Jan. 15.—The Tribune's Washington special states that a private letter from a trustworthy source from Paris, states that the Legislature of the French Empire is to assemble about the 15th inst. The Emperor in his opening address will express the most amicable and pacific sentiment towards the United States, and unless in the meanwhile the relations of the two countries become hostile by measures on questions of honor, he will promise the evacuation of Mexico as promptly as possible.

Washington, Jan. 15.—Senator Chandler offered a preamble and resolutions, declaring as follows: The British Government having refused indemnity for damage done American commerce by her subjects, there fore

Resolved, That the President be requested to withdraw our Minister from the Court of St. James, and declare national non-intercourse between the two nations.

Mr. Dixon objected to the resolution. It was laid over under the rules.

Mr. Howard offered a resolution calling for the trial of Jeff Davis and Clay by military commissions in court-martial. Resolution objected to, and laid over.

In the House—Mr. Del no, of Ohio, presented the credentials of the representatives elected from Arkansas. Referred to the Committee on recess.

Conklin, of New York, introduced an amendment to the Constitution, which was similarly referred. The amendment provided that the basis of representation and taxation shall be the whole number of citizens of the United States; but where colored people are denied the right of suffrage, such race shall be exempted from the basis.

Brownell, of Pennsylvania, offered a resolution setting forth that as the white men in the District of Columbia have decided that the blacks shall not vote, the Committee for the District of Columbia inquire into the expediency of ordering an election at which the blacks shall decide whether the whites shall vote. Laid on the table.

Kasson, of Iowa, from the special Committee, made a statement refuting the charge of the New York News, that Mrs. Lincoln had been guilty of larceny of furniture, &c., from the White House. He said the Committee had examined over a dozen witnesses and found no ground for the charge. Only one article was missing, and that was given to Mrs. Lincoln by the Secretary of the Interior and Commissioner of Public Buildings.

It is stated that Gen. Grant is at work on the detail of a new military bill, to be incorporated with the best features of Senator Wisconsin's bill, or supercede it at once.

It is stated on good authority that the Senate Committee on contested elections has prepared a report adverse to Senator Stockton, of New Jersey.

RESOLUTIONS OF CONDOLENCE.—At a meeting of Columbia Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F., held on Friday evening, January 26th, the following resolutions were adopted and ordered published in the Mountaineer:

Whereas, It has pleased the Supreme Ruler of the Universe to call from among us our well beloved Brother P. G. E. G. Cowse, who by his life and conduct had endeared himself to us, and illustrated those virtues that should ever adorn a true Odd Fellow; and

Whereas, In the death of such a Brother, our Order has lost a valuable member, and our Lodge a faithful supporter; therefore be it

Resolved, That by the death of P. G. E. G. Cowse, our Lodge, of which he was one of the founders, has suffered an uncommon bereavement; that from the first recognition of it he was engaged in promoting its welfare and extending its influence, till when, the shadow of death enshrouded his form, the seed sown by him had germinated to its present results.

Resolved, That when such men pass away it is the survivors who suffer the irreparable loss. His life well spent, his work completed, our brother lies down to rest in death, peacefully as slumbers the babe in maternal arms; but the Lodge of which he was so long a member and guide, suffers as though each brother had lost an endeared friend.

Resolved, That with hearts chastened with sorrow at the loss sustained, but blessed with the assurance that the wound is from the Hand that doeth all things well, we bow to the decree.

Resolved, That the family of our late brother have our warmest sympathy in their bereavement, trusting that they will find much to console them in reflecting upon the services he had rendered to his fellow men.

Resolved, That as a testimonial of respect to our late Brother, the Lodge room be draped in mourning for thirty days, and the members wear the usual badge for the same period.

J. HALLAHAN, P. G., A. W. FERGUSON, P. G., E. SCHUTZ, Committee.
