In Montreal, S. S. Bartlett and his wife were lately indicted for stabbing each other. They were a bad Bartlett pair.

The lower branch of the Mississippi Legislature has by a decided vote rejected the proposition to admit negro suffrage.

A LADY complains in an eastern paper that she encounters in society none but spoiled boys and prematurely old men.

It is said that there is more Indian corn grown in Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties than in all the rest of California.

A MODEL miniature locomotive made of gold and silver, with a ruby for a headlight, and costing $4,000, is on exhibition at Taunton, Mass.

The people of Austin, Nevada, want the Branch Mint for their State to be located in their town instead of at Carson, the capital.

A NEGRO in Cincinnati adopted a summary mode of disposing of a rival in the affections of a colored woman in that city. He chopped his head off with a hatchet while he slept.

A FUNNY fellow says a fifty cent chinplaster looks so much like a quack medicine label that he involuntarily turns it over to see if it cures corns, bunions and whooping cough.

BOSTON has purchased and is going to place in Faneuil Hall, the picture of Mr. Lincoln, painted by Joseph Ames, and pronounced by Sumner, Wilson and others the best portrait extant.

The gold exports of Victoria for 1865, shipped through Wells, Fargo & Co.'s Express, and Banks of North America and British Columbia, amount to $2,667,061 30; being less by $717,165 11 than that of last year.

A CONTRIBUTOR to an agricultural paper says he has enlarged his establishment, and now he keeps a head of oxen, a head of hen, and several heads of cabbage, while he is also trying to keep a head of the times.

At Marseilles, Franco, a singular incident has accompanied the development of cholera. The rat-catchers, who hitherto earned a fair livelihood by a per centage on the tails of such as they could exhibit to the police, find their occupation gone with the rats, which have all together disappeared from the shores.
