[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO JANUARY 19.

Chicago, Jan. 15.—A letter from Governor Morton, of Indiana, giving an account of his arrival in England, says: I have eaten but one meal since I went aboard the steamer, and that was on the evening that I left. My limbs are very weak, much weaker than when I started. Serious apprehensions are felt as to the effect of this trip upon his health.

A dispatch from Huntville, Ala. to the Tribune, says that in that portion of North Alabama, east of Huntsville, great destitution prevails, and that relief to both whites and blacks by the State or General Government is indispensable. Around Tusculum and Florence, everything seems to prosper, except that there are not enough laborers to work one-half of the land. The freedmen are all at work at good wages. More are wanted. White laborers are also fully employed.

Brig-General Scammon has been elected President of the Ohio Military Academy at Cincinnati.

The steamer, May Queen, belonging to this port, but laid up at Milwaukee, was burned on Saturday night last; loss, $20,000; insured for $20,000.

One-half of the business portion of Domagiac, Michigan, was destroyed by fire on Sunday last; loss, $70,000 to $80,000. Seventeen stores were consumed.

Speaker Colfax, in an address at Poughkeepsie, N. Y., on Saturday night, said that no rupture would take place between the President and Congress.

New Orleans, Jan. 13.—The Mobile Register says the steamer Sallie, captured by outlaws was rescued by a detachment of the 21st Missouri. After landing about 70 bales of government cotton, the outlaws left. The officers of the boat, who were in durant vite during its possession by the guerrillas, say they expressed a determination to prevent any Government cotton coming down the Alabama river.

A fire occurred at Talladega, Alabama, involving a loss of $70,000.

Four car loads of cotton were burned in Texas, on the Central Railroad, en route for Houston. Loss $30,000.

The Third Michigan cavalry was disarmed at San Antonio for mutiny.

A national bank has been organized at Galveston.

Washington, Jan. 14.—Official intelligence from the city of Chihuahua, Dec. 10th, has been received.

Juarez, instead of being at San Antonio, Texas, as reported, was sojourning quietly at Chihuahua. He writes to a friend as follows: The commanding officers of the frontier and the political leaders have all expressed their approval of the extension of my term, and I have reason to believe that the same will happen in other States of the Republic.

The French had sent another expedition to Chihuahua, and should this be in great force, the Mexican Government will again abandon that city for some other convenient point in the Republic.

New York, Jan. 14.—The Times' Washington correspondent gives an order of the Secretary of War disbanding the 25th army corps organization, and a general order mustering out certain officers, which has produced consternation among the decapitated Generals. All are surprised. No one included in the list expected he would be thus disposed of. Many whose names do not appear expected to see themselves in the list beheaded. Another order of a like kind could, it is believed, be issued without detriment to the interests of the country.

The convention of collectors and treasury agents of the frontier, which has been in session in Washington in the office of the Collector of Customs, has not concluded its labors. The result of its deliberations will be laid before Congress in a day or two in the form of a memorial, accompanied by bills for enactment into laws. It is intended to effectually prevent smuggling on the Canadian frontier.

New York, Jan. 15.—A Washington special says that no reduction on revenue tax on tobacco, whisky, cotton or petroleum is contemplated, but the tax is likely to be increased. The warehouse of Antonio Marcus, at Matamoras, was burned. Fifty-eight lives were lost, and several persons were seriously injured.

S. J. Kirkwood and Jas. Harlan have been elected U. S. Senators from Iowa, Kirkwood for the long term. Col. Ackerman and ex-provisional Governor Marvin, have been elected U. S. Senators from Florida, over two rebel generals. They arrived at Savannah on the 6th, en route for Washington.

San Francisco, Jan. 19.—It is currently reported, and in such a manner as to give plausibility to the story, that young Macy, the defaulting mint clerk left here on the opposition steamer Miss Taylor, on the 15th of December, under the name of James Murry.
