[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO FEBRUARY 4.

Washington, Feb. 4. - The House committee amendment fixing the base of representation will be passed by the Senate, and Trumbull's civil rights bill by the House. Both probably this week.

The Congressional plan of reconstruction so far as any majority can effect it, will be completed.

Numerous amendments will continue to be offered and discussed, but the great work stands upon the above two named propositions.

Mr. Sumner's demonstration in the Senate last Friday, offering negro suffrage as a counter proposition to the House amendment, brings him no applause and will amount to nothing.

Mr. Fessenden having the business of the completion of the constitutional amendment in the Senate, announces that he will urge from day to day, beginning tomorrow, in order to reach the Legislature now in session, the passage of Mr. Trumbull's bill. It will then only remain to settle the test oath and adjust the personal qualifications of the Southern members. These two measures are as follows:

Trumbull's bill enacts that all persons born on American soil, except Indians subject to tribute authority and children of transient residents subject to any foreign power, are citizens, and that no discrimination in their rights shall be made of race or color, or condition; that they can make and enforce contracts, sue and be sued, buy, sell, lease, hold and convey property; to be subject to the same laws and punishments as the most favored class under the present laws. This bill extends every right of citizenship except suffrage.

The House constitutional amendment provides that the representation shall be apportioned among the several States which may be included within this Union according to their respective number, counting the whole number of persons in each State, excluding Indians; provided that whenever the elective franchise shall be denied or abridged in any State on account of race or color, all persons therein of such race or color shall be exempt from the basis of representation. Upon this amendment, Gen. Bidwell, of California, voted against Messrs. Higby, McRuer, Henderson, and Ashley, of the Pacific coast. Not voting among those voting NO, were Raymond, of New York, and Jenks, of Rhode Island.

The Walla Walla Statesman says that at one house on the Camas Prairie, between South Boise and Boise City, there were seventeen men laid up with frozen feet during the late great storm. Of these, several would have to suffer amputation.

The elder Dumas was married at one period of his life to a shrew. One day, in company with a friend, he detected a gentleman kissing Madame Dumas. "My God," said the great romancer, "he kisses her, and yet he is not compelled to do it!"

The operation of casting a cubic block of steel, of the enormous weight of one hundred tons, was successfully accomplished recently at a foundry at East Greenwich, near London.

It was a starving corset-maker who thus vented his miserable complaint: "Shame, that I should be without bread - I have stayed the stomachs of thousands."

The Collector of Internal Revenue for Montana estimates the gold product of that territory for the past year at $10,000,000. This is probably in excess of the truth, but not far from it.
