NEWS OF THE INTERIOR IN DETAIL.

A hook and ladder company has been organized and equipped at Helena, Montana Territory.

Good gold washings have been found on the east side of the Missouri River, just above the "Gate of the Mountains," which are distant sixteen miles from Helena. Several creeks coming into the river on the east side can be conveniently turned on the river bars.

A man named Smith, who was engaged in teaming from Fort Union to the Montana mines, recently killed two men, one of whom was named Frank Crabtree, and the other a Mexican. He gave himself up to the authorities for trial.

Notwithstanding the intense cold in the Rocky Mountains, the travel through the Hellgate or Mullan Pass has not been stopped at any time this winter.

The Montana Post and the Radiator agree that there should be no mint established on this side of the Rocky Mountains, but that there is a pressing necessity for one in Montana.

A mining bureau has been organized in Montana.

The Idaho World says that the notorious Wm. Wells, who murdered the sheriff of Sacramento county, California, was arrested at Centerville on the 14th of January. At different times, over one hundred different men have been arrested on the belief that each was the veritable Wells, but this time it seems to be certain that the right man has been captured.

Brigham Young claims a part of Oneida County, Idaho Territory, as belonging to his dominions. The people of that section protest against being included with the Saints.

Mrs. Ellen R. Young, one of the wives of Brigham Young, recently died. She leaves a small family of her own, and two hundred and eighty step-children to mourn her untimely decease.

On the 28th of December the twelve stamp mill of the Idaho Mining Company was put in motion in the Summit District, fifteen miles up Alder Gulch from Virginia City. This is the first steam quartz mill erected in Montana Territory, but there are materials for several others which will be put up early in the spring.

L. D. Davenport was poisoned at a rancho fourteen miles from Helena, in the month of December. It is supposed that the poison was administered by a man whose wife had been seduced by Davenport.

A pack-train of one hundred and two animals arrived at Helena in December, from this side, with three thousand gallons of liquor, and a large assortment of goods. The whisky was particularly welcome, as the article was scarce in that country.

Gov. Durkee, of Utah, has found it necessary to put down the executive brake on some of the acts of the Territorial Legislature, and has vetoed several bills.

The Idaho Statesman announces that "Caleb of Lyonsdale is Governor, but without a party." Everybody appears to be turning against the Governor.

Slocum, the defaulter, is confined in Boise county jail.

DATES TO FEBRUARY 7.

Washington, Feb. 8.—In the Senate, Mr. Clay introduced a bill to amend the judicial system of the United States. It provides for ten circuit judges as now authorized, on appeal in cases involving fifty dollars, from the District Court, or without regard to amount in controversy, where the question involved is of general importance.

Mr. Doolittle presented the credentials of Hon. John Pool, Senator elect from North Carolina. It is generally understood that Mr. Pool always has been true to the Union and the Constitution. The credentials were ordered to lie on the table.

Mr. Stewart offered a resolution instructing the judiciary committee to inquire what legislation is necessary to protect citizens of the United States in a territory, in their civil rights, which was adopted.

Mr. Lane moved that the Senators elect from Colorado be admitted to the privileges of the floor, which was adopted.

On motion of Mr. Nye, the bill for the relief of paymaster Rittenhouse, of the Pacific Squadron, for amount of money stolen, was taken up and passed. The House joint resolution came up, and Mr. Lane addressed the Senate at length in favor of it. The House passed the important homestead bill introduced by Mr. Rice of Massachusetts, disposing of public lands to actual settlers, regardless of race or color, in Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana, Arkansas and Florida. It gives 80 acres to actual settlers, and embraces 46,000,000 acres, mineral lands excepted.

New York, Feb. 8.—The steamer Fulton, Hecla and Bavaria, from Europe, arrived today, but most of their news has been anticipated.

A Madrid dispatch of January 2d says, it is officially confirmed that the revolutionary General Prim entered Portugal on the 20th. He was delivering the horses and equipments of his followers to the Government. In consequence of the disturbance at Valencia, that province has been proclaimed in a state of siege.

Eugene City, Feb. 11.—Riley Deadmond, a citizen of the town, was shot last evening in a saloon and instantly killed by a saloon keeper, Steve Gardiner. An inquest was held over the body this morning. Gardiner is under arrest and will be examined to-morrow. It is generally believed that the homicide was justifiable. This Deadmond was a brother of Henry Deadmond who was hanged for murder at the Dalles a year ago.

REPORTS from Internal Revenue Collectors in Georgia, give evidence of the abundance of money in the South, notwithstanding the exhausting process of the late war. The Collector at Augusta reports having collected $200,000 the last three months, and the collectors at Macon report $100,000 in the same period, all of which is from taxes on cotton.

THE anniversary of the triumphant entry of the Emperor Iturbide into the City of Mexico, on the 30th of September, 1821, was celebrated with great pomp in that capital, and a monument was dedicated to Morales, the Mexican patriot in the war of independence, on the same day. One, to perpetuate the memory of Iturbide, is about to be placed in the cathedral.

MR. BROOKS, the United States Postal Agent, arrived in town last night. He will remain over to-morrow, and during his stay is anxious to acquaint himself with the postal needs of this section; and particularly in regard to the lack of mail facilities to the south-east of us. We very gladly bear testimony to his desire to advance the public interest in this quarter.

THE sales of postage stamps and stamped envelopes at the postoffice in New York city, for the year ending Sept. 30, 1865, amounts to $1,465,032, an increase of $260,800 over the previous year.

THE tax list shows that there is over four million dollars invested in Newport by persons from abroad, who usually reside there but a portion of the year. This constitutes nearly one fourth the entire property of the city.

THE Secretary of the Treasury has directed that no more of the old fifty-cent currency shall be issued, and is about to substitute in its stead, a new note, somewhat similar, bearing the vignette of the United States Treasurer, Hon. F. E. Spinner.
