

Daily Mountaineer.

TUESDAY MORNING, FEB. 27, 1866.

NEWS OF THE INTERIOR IN DETAIL.

We have Montana dates to the 27th of January; the papers from Virginia City having come through by Salt Lake City in thirty days.

The San River excitement turns out to be a "steambot." The weather came on very cold, while hundreds of prospectors were out with insufficient supplies, and it is feared that many lives have been lost.

A man named James Talbot was robbed at the crossing of Jefferson Fork of the Missouri by three highwaymen. He lost two hundred ounces of gold dust and $650 in greenbacks, but escaped without personal injury. This happened on the main road from Virginia City to Helena.

The Idaho Statesman thinks the Branch Mint will yet be located at Boise City. The Washington Statesman appears to think that The Emporium will be the place. When Statesmen differ who is to decide?

The New York & Owyhee Company's Mill, at Owyhee, commenced crushing rock on the 7th of February.

The Walla Walla Statesman of February 16th contains the following:—Mr. Henry LaFleur, a resident of Colville, and just down from the mines, has exhibited some very fine specimens of coarse gold, taken out of his claim on French Creek, about twenty miles from the Columbia River, above Death Rapids. Mr. L. worked five men, with one sluice, and here is the yield per day, as noted down: Oct. 5, 1865, $55; 7, $295; 10, $368; 11, $170; 13, $140; 14, $127; 15, $388; 16, $513; 17, $714; 18, $680; 19, $1094; 21, $1,105; 22, $939. 23, $228; 25, $4174; 26, $182; 28, $2674; 29, $255; 31, $245. This gold he estimated at $17 per oz; but he informs us that the gold in this market is worth $18.

The Idaho Statesman says that a new trail will be laid out in the spring from Boise City to Helena, by Fort Lembi, on Salmon River. The distance is said to be two hundred and fifty miles. This must be the "air-line" heretofore spoken of, as the parties who may try to go over the ground "early in the spring" will find that the snow will range from three to twenty feet from the head of the East Fork of the Payette to near Lembi.

The hostile demonstrations of the Snake Indians in Southern Idaho is the most important piece of information we have from the interior. They have, for several weeks past been actively engaged in depredating on way-farers and wagon-trains. Capt. White, First Oregon Cavalry, stationed at Camp Lyon, went out after the Indians who had been in the neighborhood of Ruby City, and had a skirmish with them, in which he lost one man killed. Some fears are entertained for the safety of Camp Lyon. Forty mounted men from Fort Boise have gone to the assistance of Capt. White, and the troops in the Harney Lake country will move in that direction as soon as it is practicable to march. A company of citizen volunteers is forming at Owyhee, to number one hundred. On Snake River, the Indians have driven off the cattle of Henry G. Miller, who resides on Burnt River. The robbers were pursued without being overhauled. The present season will probably witness the total repression of savage warfare in the vicinity of the mines on the waters of Snake River, and the late outbreak will only hasten that event, by rousing citizens and military to energetic action.

The road from the mouth of Muscel Shell River, the head of navigation on the Missouri River, to Helena, runs through a fine farming country for the greater part of its length, which is about two hundred and twenty-five miles.

Boise Valley is clear of snow and farmers were about to commence breaking ground on the 15th of February.

A Mrs. Reed, living at Jefferson Gulch, Blackfoot mines, was frozen to death in January. She wandered away from home in a condition of drunkenness, and was found five days afterwards. Her husband, in the meantime, had been arrested on suspicion of murdering her.

The diggings found last fall between Big and Little Blackfoot, fifty miles from Hellgate Ronde, are turning out to be rich and extensive. On Elk Creek, some twenty gulches (small creeks) have proven to be rich, and claims are already selling well up in the thousands.

A Proclamation has been issued by Acting Governor T. F. Meagher, of Montana, calling an election for members of a convention to meet at Banack City on the 26th of March.—The election was to be held on the 24th of February. The purpose appears to be to make a State out of Montana on short notice.

THE MONTANA TRADE.

We have files of Montana papers to the 27th of January. At Blackfoot City, we learn by letter, flour was retailing at $35 for States, Walla Walla and Oregon brands. There were several parties buying in quantities at $32 on speculation.

At Helena prices are about the same as those of Virginia City.

Tobacco had declined in all the principal mining camps. A slight decline in provisions, and supplies in general, is noted, as in our reprint of Virginia prices current, which is attributable to the fact that sales are generally limited to immediate demand for consumption. The ruling rates, however, are higher than last year at the same time.

The following are the Virginia City quotations (retail prices, twenty per cent added): FLOUR.—St. Louis, 7 sack, $39; States, $24@27; Salt Lake, $24@25.

ANOTHER steambot is to be built for the navigation of Clark's Fork, above the Cabinet Dalles. Messrs. Hogue and Abrams, of this city, are interested in the enterprise. The boat will be a duplicate of the one now building at Pen d'Oreille Lake.

DAN SHOWALTER, formerly a member of the California Legislature and a noted duelist, was lately killed at Mazatlan, Mexico.

WELLS, Fargo & Co.'s Express from above, on Sunday, brought down about $100,000 in treasure.

GEN. HOWARD claims that the Freedmen's Bureau, on the basis of its original establishment, is entitled to run a year longer.

SECRETARY Seward refuses to receive the late rebel cruiser Shenandoah, from the British.
