FACTS AND FANCIES.

COLONEL STRAIGHT, who made the straight ride through Georgia, and dug his way out of Libby Frison, is editing a paper in Indiana.

It is thought that rice will never again be produced in any quantity in the South. The white men cannot and the negroes will not cultivate it.

AMBASSADORS from Morocco have arrived in Paris. They bring as presents to the Emperor six magnificent horses and a tiger of rare beauty.

A STRANGE disease has broken out among the poultry in Ohio. The chicken's combs and gills turn black; it gapes, sneezes, and falls dead in a few minutes.

A servant girl, here in London, committed suicide recently by hanging. In the room beside her body was found a "sensational novel," narrating murders and suicide.

THE South-Eastern Railway Company, England, have ordered their porters and others who have adopted the mustache, to shave it off. The order is said to have caused some consternation, but it has been obeyed.

A month or two ago there was a fierce competition between two rival steamboat lines on the James River. They put their prices so low to ruin each other that both were destroyed, and now a third party has come in and enjoys quiet possession of all the profitable business on the river.

A certain minister going to visit one of his sick parishioners, asked him how he had rested during the night? "Oh wondrous ill, Sir," replied he, "for mine eyes have not come together these three nights." "What is the reason of that?" said the other. "Alas! Sir," says he, "because my nose was betwixt them."

It is superstition of the peasants of Brittany that the popping of chestnuts, when placed on the fire at a child's birth, betokens its future success in life. If they explode, it will be rich and talkative; if they hiss and smoulder away, it will always be unlucky; while if they quietly turn inside out and burn with a flame, it will be happy in marriage.

A young negro slave in Havana was lately found to possess great poetical ability. A subscription was immediately started, and the owner contributed nearly half the marketable value of the poet. The rest was soon made up, and the poet is free. Some of this uninstructed slave's poetry is very fine. His name is Ambrosio Echemendia, and he bids fair to rival the famous colored bard of Matanzas, Placido.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Being about to make a professional tour to the towns and settlements up the Columbia, I respectfully call the attention of those of my patrons who are in need of Dental Operations of any character, to the fact, so that they may have an opportunity to avail themselves of my services before my departure, if so desired. I will leave about the 20th of March, and return to this place to resume my practice, about the 18th of June. [E21f] J. W. GURLEY.
