[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 17.

Washington, March 16.—Robt. Dale Owen appeared before the House committee on foreign affairs yesterday, and argued in favor of the new proposition to guarantee the $50,000,000 to the Republic of Mexico.

The Secretary of Arizona has been appointed Governor of Idaho, vice Caleb Lyon.

The Constitutional Amendment, which was made the especial order for yesterday in the Senate, will be taken up early next week, having been postponed by general consent.

An important case is before the Supreme Court, involving the constitutionality of the test oath imposed on the clergy, lawyers and other professions, by the new State Constitution of Missouri.

Holbrook, delegate from Idaho, introduced a bill to establish a post route from Idaho City to Rocky Bar, and to create the office of Surveyor General for that Territory.

Henderson, of Oregon, presented a joint resolution from the State of Oregon for the establishment of a port of entry at Portland, and also for a daily mail from Portland to Idaho.

Poland, of Vermont, introduced a bill fixing the salary of U. S. District Judges, which gives $5,000 each to the Judges of Massachusetts, southern New York, eastern Pennsylvania, Maryland, East Virginia, eastern Louisiana, northern California, Oregon and Nevada, and all others $4,000 each.

Washington, March 17.—The President has directed that forty thousand colored troops be mustered out of service during the next month. The Senate is not in session to day, and the House is only open for general debates.

The Nashville papers contain a letter from Gov. Brownlow, to Wm. D. Kelly, member of Congress, dated the 8th, wherein he says when Richmond fell and surrendered, the rebels, and many who sympathized with them, were very respectful to Union men, and often obsequious.

Guilty culprits, they evidently feared arrest and punishment, and felt that to be let alone and allowed to live, was all they had a right to expect; but since the pardons had been so multiplied and no man been punished, they have everywhere become impatient and defiant, until, in some counties in Middle and West Tennessee, it is disreputable to have been a Union man, or, as a southern man to have served in the Union army, and matters are growing worse.

Reconstructed traitors are openly cursing loyal men; threatening them with shooting or hanging, boasting that they have the President on their side, while we all feel that the President's policy is ruinous to us.

The most popular men in the largest portion of Tennessee, to-day, are men most distinguished for their hostility to the North, and what they are pleased to term, a radical Congress, and they are the class of men selected to fill offices, as the late county elections show.

The same is true of the entire South, only to a greater extent. Many of them are expecting the President to disperse Congress with bayonets, as Cromwell dispersed the long Parliament.

The southern heart is being rapidly fired to deeds of war, and all this and more, as I believe, has been caused by the mistakes of the President. His plan of trusting the rebels with State Governments, has had an effect exactly opposite of what he intended, and has ruined the prospects of the Union men, and they feel there is no safety for them, unless Congress protects them.

The mail service in the Pacific States for the next four years, the contracts for which were closed last Wednesday, the 14th: number in California, 99 routes; in Nevada, 10; in Oregon, 21; in Washington Territory, 19; in Idaho, 7; in Utah, 25; in Colorado, 21; in Arizona, 11; and in New Mexico, 8.

The competition throughout was greater than at any former period, and the prices are reduced on those now paid.

of all hostile feelings growing out of the late unhappy civil war; and

WHEREAS, One of the most prolific sources of unfriendly sentiments is a conflict of opinion on the subject of negro suffrage; and

WHEREAS, It is now evident there is no probability whatever that Senators and Representatives from States lately in rebellion will be permitted to occupy seats until such States have complied with certain fundamental conditions, a part of which are here recited; and

WHEREAS, It is unreasonable to expect the re-establishment of harmony and good feeling as long as the people of eleven States are prevented from resuming their full relations to the Government, therefore

Resolved, That the people of said States shall be recognized as having fully resumed their relations when they shall have amended their constitutions so as to do away with all distinction of civil rights on account of race or color, and provide for the extension of suffrage on conditions applicable to all inhabitants, and

Resolved, That with the acceptance of these conditions general amnesty shall be proclaimed.

Resolved, That all other States not above specified, be respectfully invited to incorporate similar principles in their State Constitutions.

Stewart in presenting the above, said he wanted the people of the South to have an opportunity to act on this subject before Congress undertakes to settle it for them. He said the proposition accorded with the President's letter to Gov. Sharkey, last August, and he had no reason to believe that the President had changed his views since that time.
