

FACTS AND FANCIES.

A destructive fire is reported as having taken place on Bennehoff Run, near Petroleum Centre, in the Pennsylvania oil region.

THE MULLAN ROAD.—The citizens Walla Walla are attempting to raise $5,000 for the re opening of the Mullan Road. The Statesman says a like sum can be raised in San Francisco.

A Connecticut deacon was attaching a very poor and feeble pair of oxen to a very large load of wood. A neighbor asked him how he expected to get so large a load to market with so poor a team. The deacon replied that he expected to have help from Divine Providence. His neighbor asked him whether it would not be as well to dispense entirely with the oxen and let Providence draw the whole load.

A black minister was closing up his prayer, when some white boys in the corner had the ill manners to laugh, so that the sable suppliant heard them. He had said but a moment before, and very earnestly, "Bless all dat human," when the laugh occurred; and commencing again, just before the Amen, the pious old negro said: "O Lord, we are not in de habit of addin' postscript to our prayer; but if the sprission, Bless all dat is human, won't take in dese wicked white fellers, den we pray dat de Lord will bless some dat ain't human, also besides, Amen!

DIDN'T COMPREHEND.—A day or two since a young lady from the country rode into town "to do a little shopping," and after hitching her horse on the square, entered one of our most fashionable dry-goods' establishments and seated herself on a stool near the counter, "to wait her turn." A moment or two after she was approached by one of the polite young clerks of the establishment and addressed as follows: "I am no longer engaged, Miss—is any one waiting on you?" Blushing immoderately the damsel, after some hesitation, replied: "No sir, I came in alone on the old mare."
