Epitome of Telegraphic News.

[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO MARCH 19.

Washington, March 19.—In the House, Mr. Kasson, of Iowa, introduced a bill to amend the Act of July 18th, 1862, to aid the construction of a railroad and telegraph from the Amoor river to the Pacific. Referred to committee on Pacific Railroad.

Mr. Bidwell, of Cal., introduced a bill to enable the State of California to reclaim lands within the limits of the State. Referred.

Mr. Dawson, of Penn., offered a resolution reciting that the United States cannot guarantee bonds of the Mexican Republic or any other government without impairing its own credit, and imposing new burdens on the people. The House refused to second the demand for the previous question, and the resolution went over.

Mr. Windom, of Minn., introduced a joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Interior to pay certain claims out of the appropriation for expenses for Indian affairs. Referred.

Mr. Garfield, of Ohio, offered a resolution, which was voted down, directing the committee on printing, to inquire into the expediency of publishing accounts of exploration across the great basin of Utah to San Francisco, in 1859, by Capt. Simpson, of the Engineer Corps.

Mr. Garfield's motion to reconsider the vote by which the loan bill was lost on Friday, came up, and a motion to lay that motion on the table, was defeated. Ayes 2; noes 79. The bill subsequently passed, by a vote of 81 to 61.

A concurrent resolution was offered that Congress adjourn on Tuesday, blank day of May.

Mr. Washburn, of Illinois, asked if it was in order to fill the blank with the last Thursday in May.

Speaker said only by unanimous consent.

Mr. Morrill, of Vt., remarked that such a resolution was premature, until the appropriation bill passed, and called for the ayes and noes, which resulted, ayes, 80; noes 64. So the resolution passed.

Mr. Coffroth, of Penn., offered a resolution, which was adopted, instructing the military committee to report at an early day, a bill for equalizing bounties for all soldiers and sailors during the late war.

Washington, March 18.—In the Senate Wilson reported House bill appointing twelve trustees for the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home, to obviate the difficulty of getting a quorum of the one hundred corporators together, and it was passed. The bill now goes to the President.

Fessenden, of Maine, made explanation about the published letters of Wm A. Graham, saying that Joint Committee could not allow his (Graham's) request to cross examine witnesses. They desired the investigation to be full and impartial, and were ready to hear any witnesses who could throw any light on the subject. Graham was of the belief that the testimony had closed because the evidence was stringent; it had not closed except in the case of Tennessee, and if Graham wished to introduce further testimony in the case of North Carolina, he could do so.

Williams, of Oregon, introduced a bill for equalizing bounties on the basis of $13 per month, the bounties heretofore paid to be deducted and the proceeds in common to be specially assigned for this purpose. Referred to the military committee.

The House concurrent resolution providing for the adjournment of Congress, was referred to the committee on finance.
