FACTS AND FANCIES. .

Mas. Wirtz indignantly denies the story that she tried to poison her has band while kissing him, and swears to what she says.

Most of the silk machinery that was thrown out of use in Covington, England, by the operation of the high tariff established in this country during the war, has been brought over here and is already in operation.

A couple who met for the first time in a car on the New York and Erie railroad, the other day, liked each other so well that when the train reached Elmira they got out, struck for the nearest clergyman's and were married.

Rev Dr Barnes, a Methodist clergyman, 80 years old, was recently arrest ed at Philadelphia for marrying a couple who was under age. the jury were out, deciding how to dispose of him, the old man died from a sudden attack of vertigo.

WATERFALLS are making a great disturbance in Germany. The int noceat maidens there weare their hair hanging in long plaits, and pestilent fellows are around to clip them at every opportunity for the waterfall makers. Even the churches are dese crated by these singular thieves.

BY WAY OF OREGON TO MONTANA .-Mr. A. C. Ripley, rassenger by the Pacific, informs us that the San Francisco merchants are convinced of the superiority of the Oregon route to Montana over all others, and have gone to work in good earnest to raise a portion of the necessary funds for opening a road starting from the most feasible point on the Columbia river. When Mr. Ripley left, the sum of $6,250 had been subscribed and would be ready for application on the road whenever there should be a reasonable assurance that their northern neighbors had also taken hold of the matter with determination. It had become very clear that the advocates of the Colorado route had pecuniary interesta to serve in setting forth its advantages, but the business men of San Francisco were unable to see that that route is much superior to that via New Orleans, and they had very generally decided not to take stock in it. We think that we can be assured of California aid, if we manifest any disposition to help ourselves. The merchants of Oregon, and especially of Portland, are certainly very careless of their own good, if they do not at once accept the proffered helping hand of San Francisco, and make a corresponding effort to secure the trade of Montana while not yet too late .- Oregonian.
