

Daily Mountaineer.

SATURDAY MORNING, MARCH 24, 1866.

SEWING MACHINES FOR SALE.—It will be seen by reference to our advertising columns that among other things to be sold at auction to-day by Mr. Williams are three sewing machines of different makers.

We are indebted to B. J. Pengra, Esq., of Eugene City, for a copy of the Report of the Recent Surveys and Progress of Construction of the Oregon Central Military road. A hasty looking over is all we have yet been able to give it, but we are convinced it is full of valuable and interesting information.

THE CITY ELECTION.—We publish in another column, this morning, an advertisement calling a Democratic mass meeting, to nominate candidates for city offices. We had hoped that party politics would be thrown aside in selecting men to fill the few offices that our City Charter creates; but some men cannot for a moment, nor upon the most trivial affair, depart from the "time honored principles" of Democracy. There are a great many voters of the city who with us had hoped that this state of politics would not be brought into the municipal election. We need good and true men to fill the offices, and we are of the opinion that the best way to arrive at that result is to call a citizen's meeting and nominate men who would be acceptable to our people, and who would discharge their duties faithfully. We owe it to ourselves to see that good men be chosen, and that the city government be conducted in such a manner as to insure both benefit to the city and citizens. We shall oppose all party nominations in the coming election, no matter by what party made, and will endeavor to see the best men, no matter of what politics they are, elected to fill our city offices.

A BIT OF ROMANCE.—Under this head the Oregonian publishes, from a Missouri paper, the particulars of the recovery of a white child by a Col. King, who, on his arrival from the plains, advertised and described the child. The boy was at once claimed as being the child of a Mr. Sylvester, who came to Oregon overland, in 1861, and who had a child stolen from him by the Indians, while camped on the Humboldt river. The claimant was Mr. Sylvester's brother, who resides at Quincy, Illinois, and to whom the child has been given up. Thus much for the item from the Missouri paper. Mr. Miller, of the firm of Bunnell & Miller, of this city, yesterday received for Mr. Sylvester, who now resides at Albany, a letter containing a photograph of the boy, which was instantly recognized by his near relatives in this city, and places the question of identity beyond all doubt; though the child is also claimed by a Mr. O'Connell, of New York city, who also lost a child of about the same age, and about the same time. The photograph and letter have been sent to Mr. Sylvester, at Albany, and he will doubtless go East immediately and recover his child, as the parties who reclaimed the boy from his captivity desire him to do so before they set aside the claim of Mr. O'Connell. This is truly a very romantic and happy termination.

Epitome of Telegraphic News.

New York, March 19.—Many dry goods have been sold of late for currency at less than cost in gold. Several failures are reported in the provision trade at Buffalo, and some excitement was occasioned here to-day by the disappearance of a Broad street produce dealer with $100,000.

New York, March 21.—The steamer New York sailed to-day for Aspinwall. Among the passengers was Thomas W. Knox, the well known correspondent lately connected with the associated press agency, who will accompany the telegraph expedition through Siberia and Russia.

Washington, March 21.—Dr. Ballard, of Oregon, has been appointed Governor of Idaho, and it will doubtless be sanctioned by the Senate.

In the House, Price, of Iowa, on the committee on the Pacific Railroad, reported a bill to secure the speedy construction of the Northern Pacific Railroad. Julian introduced a bill to equalize soldiers and sailors' bounty. Referred to committee on military affairs. Henderson, of Oregon, presented a joint resolution of the Legislature of Oregon in regard to Oregon war claims. Ward, of New Jersey, said the friends of deceased soldiers buried at Arlington Cemetery were apprehensive that it should reach the heirs of Gen. Lee, therefore he desired to read a letter from the Secretary of War, which states that the Arlington property was bid in for the Government at $260,000, at a sale for unpaid taxes January 11th, 1866. The certificate of sale would soon be placed on file in the Treasury Department.

Chicago, March 22.—An order detailing Gen. Sheridan as a member of the special army board to meet him in New Orleans just as he was preparing to go on important service to Rio Grande frontier. The troops there are said to be in a disordered state, and fears are entertained in consequence that new complications might arise between our Government and the French in Mexico. He deemed it necessary, therefore, to go there to regulate affairs in that Department, so as to maintain order. The Secretary of War, therefore, did not repeat the order for Gen. Sheridan's presence in St. Louis. The board will doubtless proceed without him.

GEN. MEAGHER'S SPEECH.—Gen. Meagher, Acting Governor of Montana, made a speech at Helena, on February 7th, which we find published in the Montana Post, in which he "defines his position." He commenced by stating that "when he came to the Territory he fell into the hands of some political rascals who advised him against convening the Legislature: but upon consultation with some lawyers he was convinced that he was in error, and his Irish heart could not stomach the influence, and, since that time, he had been opposed by the political rascals into whose hands he fell, when he first came here. That he gloried in being a Democrat, and in occupying the high position in which his political opponents had placed him—and that now, when he was satisfied he had the power to do so, was the time to call the Legislature and the Convention, and not to wait until more Republicans came to the Territory before doing so, as he had been advised to by political rascals. That complaints had been made of his appointments of men to office, and he had been told that he had appointed rebels and bushwhackers, and that he gloried in having done so. That it was time to heal all difficulties, and the way to do so. That he had his instructions from the Lieutenant-General. That these epithets were not known at the scene of conflict; but originated thousands of miles away, among those who were safe in the mountains. That he had fought bravely for four years, and many times, after a battle, he had seen the brave, noble and heroic Southern soldier lying on his back, with his frozen hand in his knapsack grasping the last morsel of parched corn; that they were true soldiers and heroes, and the noblest of men. That when the great and noble Lee and Johnson honorably sheathed their swords, the acts of no one should be remembered against him; but that all should act and feel as brothers, and that discrimination should not be exercised against them. That some political rascal had been reporting stories about him, and he would like to grasp him by the throat and choke it out of him.

SALMON FISHING.—We notice as the season for taking salmon arrives that there is considerable preparation made for fishing this season. From 2,000 to 4,000 barrels will probably be taken in this vicinity the ensuing spring and summer. At the usual value of salmon in this market, that will be from $20,000 to $40,000 worth, and three-fourths of the whole amount, at least, will be clear gain, or the net result of the labor expended in the business.—The fisheries are extensive and the fish abundant enough to yield an annual product $250,000 per annum, just as well as $25,000. All it wants is enterprising fishermen and a good market for the product. No gold mine is any better or surer, or more lasting.—Astoria Gazette.

The name of Wm. H. Sergeant, in the telegraphic news this morning, as being confined Superintendent of Indian Affairs in Washington Territory, should probably be Wm. H. Barnhart.

GOONS AT COST.—We would call the attention of our readers to the fact, that Messrs. Abrahamson & Kohlberg are selling goods at San Francisco cost. Parties desiring to buy clothing, will do well to examine their stock before purchasing elsewhere. mh16f
