FACTS AND FANCIES.

A young candidate for the legal profession was asked what he should do first when employed to bring an action. "Ask for money on account," was the prompt reply. He passed.

It is stated at the Treasury that at our present ratio of income the national debt may be easily reduced $100,000,000 the present year, after providing for all current and contingent liabilities.

A Catholic Archbishop of Baltimore has distributed throughout the South, without regard to creed, the $12,000 collected in the Catholic churches of Maryland and the District of Columbia for the benefit of those who suffered during the war.

GEORGE Francis Train has bought four hundred and thirty-four acres of forest land in Omaha, Nebraska, for $75,000, for his Cottage Company and for a Central Park. George says Omaha is destined to be one of the great cities of the continent.

The Germans are buying largely of American securities, and from this cause they have made themselves better acquainted with our resources than formerly and thereby an emigration fever has been developed.

The English journals tell us of another article from which paper is manufactured with success. It grows in Spain, and is called Atocha or esparto grass. So gross is the demand for it that the price has risen to over twenty dollars a ton.

EUGENIE is no longer looked up to, in England, as the great oracle on fashion. The English ladies are more governed, now, by the Princess of Wales, who is younger and more gay, therefore better fitted to set the example.

The Western papers are complaining that it costs three bushels of corn to send one to market a distance of one hundred miles, one hundred bushels to get a pair of boots, one thousand bushels to get a suit of clothes, and two tons of corn for a ton of coal.

BARLEY has been sowed with success one hundred and forty-five years after it was produced. Wheat may be kept with the germinating principle for ages. Seeds of different grasses will vegetate after having been buried in the earth a thousand years.

AMOS Kendall, Postmaster General under Jackson, is building in Washington a house of worship, the "Cavalry Baptist Church," at a cost of seventy five thousand dollars, which he proposes to give the Society of the church, on condition that, when finished, they will furnish it.
