[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 4.

Chicago, April 1.—The Memphis Argus of March 28th gives editorial prominence to statements that President Johnson has written a friend in West Tennessee a letter declaring that he is only waiting for Texas to do as the other Southern States have done in order to issue his pro-lama-ion declaring a general amnesty, and that the lately rebellious States having resumed all their relations, to be restored to the Union, are entitled to equal rights. The President further says he intends firmly, to see that all the States have that representation in Congress to which the Federal Constitution entitled them and to recognize a majority of Representatives of all the States in Congress. In the same letter the President announces the policy he intends to pursue in regard to Tennessee, which, while we deem proper for the present to withhold, may assure our readers that it will at once lift our State up out of the mire of oppression from an irresponsible oligarchy and place it by the side of the other States on the platform of equal rights.

New York, April 2.—The returns from forty eight towns, including Hartford, Norwich and New London, gives Hawley, (U.) 7,076, and English, (D) 5,683.

LATER, 2:30 P. M.—New Haven gives English 1550 majority. The Hartford full vote is as follows: Hawley, 2512, English, 2,991.

9:30 P. M.—Gen. Hawley will have a majority of 1500 to 2000 in the State. The vote is the largest polled in six years. In New London county all but two towns gave Hawley about 23000 majority.

Chicago, April 4.—The Hartford Post of this evening, makes Hawley's majority 594 in a total vote of 87,332. The Senate consists of 93 Republicans and 8 Democrats. The House is also Republican.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CONVENTION.

The Democratic State Convention met day before yesterday, at Portland, and organized by electing L. F. Grover President, and Vic. Trevitt and B. L. Norden Secretaries. The convention had a long and busy session during the day, but did not make any nominations. The following are the resolutions adopted as a platform:

1. Resolved, That we affirm as the end of our political faith and practice, our steadfast devotion to the following principles, viz: Equal and exact justice to all men of whatever state, party or sect; the support of the State Governments in all their rights, and of the Federal Government in all its vigor; a jealous care of the elective franchise; the supremacy of the civil over the military authority; opposition to the centralization of power; economy in all public expenditures; the general diffusion of education; the encouragement of morality and the highest civilization; the right of every man to worship God according to the dictates of his own conscience; freedom of speech, freedom of the press, and freedom of the person, under the protection of the habeas corpus.

2. That the action of the majority in Congress in refusing to admit the Representatives of eleven States, is an unwarranted assumption of power upon the part of Congress, revolutionary in its tendency, and dangerous to the liberties of the people; that we do and will sustain President Johnson in his determination and efforts for the complete restoration of the constitutional rights in all the States, and we unreservedly approve his veto of the Freedmen's Bureau and Civil Rights bills, and all his constitutional efforts to prevent the fanatical majority in Congress from changing or destroying our cherished form of Government.

3. That the position assumed by President Johnson, that the Representatives from the Southern States ought to be at once admitted to seats in Congress, and that legislation affecting such States while they are unrepresented is unconstitutional, meets with our hearty approval.

4. That the assumptions of the opposition that the Democratic party is in favor of repudiating the public debt, and that it is in favor of nullification and secession, is slanderous and false.

5. That we endorse the sentiment of Senator Douglas, that this Government was made on a white basis for the benefit of the white man, and we are opposed to extending the right of suffrage to any other than white men.

6. That the exemption of United States bonds from taxation is substantially the exemption of rich men from taxation because they are rich, and the taxation of poor men because they are poor, and we are in favor of taxing those bonds for county, State and municipal purposes.

7. That strict and impartial justice demands that the expenses of the General Government as well as of the State Governments, should be borne by the people according to their ability, and not according to their necessities; and hence, that we condemn now, as in the past, a protective tariff that tends, necessarily, to oppress the masses for the benefit of the rich.

8. That in a democratic government the real sovereignty rests in the people, and all efforts tending to wrest power from the people is a war upon them, revolutionary and dangerous; and that the existence of national banks, after the experience we have had without them, especially in times of peace, is a subject of just alarm.

9. That the unlawful and shameful squandering of the people's money by our present State officials, meets with our emphatic condemnation.

10. That we will ever hold in grateful memory those through whose patriotic, not mercenary or partisan services, the dignity of the Republic and the integrity of the Union were preserved; and we denounce as a base insult to the gallant living and heroic dead, the present efforts of the Radicals to convert the nation's victory into a partisan triumph, seeking to make the late war one of conquest, instead of the suppression of the rebellion—for subjugation instead of restoring the Union—for the negro instead of the white man.

11. That the miners should be encouraged and protected in the free use of the mines.
