

Daily Mountaineer.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, APRIL 11, 1866.

MONTANA ITEMS.—Gov Meagher, of Montana, has been making a strange blunder, which has resulted fatally. It appears that there was a man named Daniels imprisoned there on conviction of manslaughter, whose friends petitioned the Governor for his reprieve, whereupon the Governor pardoned him. It is now asserted that Gov. Meagher has not the pardoning power; that only the President of the United States can exercise it in the Territories; also, that the man Daniels was entirely unworthy of clemency. Let these assertions be as they may, the worst feature of the affair is that Daniels had not been released over twenty-four hours when his lifeless body was found suspended to a tree; supposed to be the work of vigilantes.

Gov. Meagher was to deliver the address at Virginia City on St. Patrick's day.

The "Oro Cache" cleaned up recently over $1,500 from seventeen and a half tons average rock.

The Irwins were playing at Virginia.

Two men named Reilly and Shannon fought a prize fight at Helena on the 10th of March, in which the latter came out second best, having injured his wrist in the forty sixth round. Both men were then arrested and fined $50 each.

The citizens of Helena have been holding an indignation meeting against the wanton acts of the vigilantes, and now declare in favor of letting no more executions take place unless under the sanction of the law.

The Post is after the Montana delegate at Washington with a sharp stick, charging him with being absent from his duties most of the time and being dumb when present. Hence Montana is not getting her meed of attention in the Halls of Congress.

Miners and those who expect to make fortunes out of miners are abundant in Montana. The Post complains that tradesmen and farmers are wanted; that the agricultural possibilities of the country are as great as the mineral, if not so directly remunerative, and that tanners, millers and shoemakers, woolen factors and all the useful trades are sadly neglected, and hold out great inducements to emigration of the right kind.

On the afternoon of March 1st, an engagement took place between a band of Blood warriors and a party of whites at the Sun River Bridge, one of the whites, James Malone, being badly wounded in the right side. One Indian was killed in the fight and three others that were captured were immediately hanged. The Blackfeet, Bloods and Piegiars are reported, by reliable parties that arrived in Helena yesterday, to be nearly all in open hostility to the whites. Of four men, who left Fort Union some time ago with an express for Fort Benton, only one has been heard from. He is reported to have been found with his back pierced with arrows, and it is supposed that his three companions were also killed by the red devils. Horse stealing is extensively carried on, over twenty head having been recently stolen at Sun River alone. The prospectors and ranchmen at Sun River are fortifying, and will act purely on the defensive, until their numbers are increased.

[COMPILED FROM THE OREGONIAN.]

DATES TO APRIL 9.

Chicago, April 7.—The United States Senate, yesterday, passed the bill to supply the deficiency of land granted to the State of Oregon, to add the construction of the military road from Eugene City to the eastern boundary of the State.

Buffalo, April 7.—Dispatches from Boston, Philadelphia and other cities, report the firing of salutes by the Republicans in commemoration of the passage of the Civil Rights Bill by the Senate.

St. Louis, April 7.—The teamers Major, Effie Deans, Nevada, Fannie Ogden, and Frank Bates were burned at the levee this morning. Loss, $225,050 on the boats; and $300,000 on cargoes.

The boats belonged to the Northwestern Fur Company, and were heavily laden with supplies for trading posts.

Raphael Semmes, of pirate Alabama notoriety, was released by order of the President, on his original parole under the Sherman-Johnson arrangement.

Washington, April 9.—The President instructs the heads of departments to give preference to discharge soldiers in all clerical appointments or promotion.

Senator Sherman last Thursday offered a bill to incorporate the National Telegraph Company, with power to construct lines over any post routes in the States or Territories. The government to use the lines at such rates as the Post-Master General may prescribe. The bill was referred to a select committee of five.

Since the President's peace proclamation the price of officer's rations have been reduced to thirty cents.

Chicago, April 9.—Much suffering and destitution is reported in Georgia and Alabama. Gov. Jenkins has issued a proclamation calling on capitalists to come forward or the people will starve. The Huntsville (Ala.) Independent says several cases of actual starvation have occurred in that county, and publishes a statement of the Probate Judge of Marshall county, that a careful census shows that there are 2,180 persons, whites and black, absolutely helpless from age, sickness or infirmity, and families representing in all 2,000 persons, are dependent for their living on work, but unable to earn it, and are living off the residue of the people. In Marshall county, there were not more than twenty with means more than adequate for their wants.

The Wisconsin Senate last Friday, instructed its committee on Federal Relations to report a resolution requesting Senator Doollittle to resign.

Nashville, April 8.—The Tennessee Legislature assembled tomorrow with a radical majority of six members, being four more than a working quorum. The radical caucus voted to refer all credentials, and admit only those elected as new members and exclude bolters that are re-elected, on the ground that the latter came back under a pledge to bolt again, and are therefore in rebellion against the State government. Exciting question: will the former claim the immediate attention of the House.

Chicago, April 6.—A special dispatch to the Tribune, just received, says: The Civil Rights Bill passed the Senate at 6:30 o'clock, by 33 yeas to 15 noes. Dixon, of Connecticut, was absent; Morgan, of New York, and Willey, of West Virginia, voted ye; Wright, of New Jersey, voted no. Morgan's vote was received with cheer, and the final announcement of the result with wild enthusiasm. The chamber was densely crowded. The following is the vote:

Yeas—Messrs. Anthony, of Rhode Island; Brown, of Missouri; Chandler of Michigan; Clark, of New Hampshire; Conness, of California; Cragin, of New Hampshire; Creswell, of Maryland; Edmonds, of Vermont; Fessenden, of Maine; Foster, of Connecticut; Grimes, of Iowa; Harris, of New York; Henderson, of Missouri; Howard, of Michigan; Howe, of Wisconsin; Kirkwood, of Iowa; Lane, of Indiana; Morgan, of New York; Morrill, of Maine; Nye, of Nevada; Poland, of Vermont; Pomeroy, of Kansas; Ramsey, of Minnesota; Sherman, of Ohio; Sprague, of Rhode Island; Stewart, of Nevada; Sumner, of Massachusetts; Trumbull, of Illinois; Wade, of Ohio; Willey, of West Virginia; Williams, of Oregon; Wilson, of Massachusetts; and Yates, of Illinois—33.

Noes—Messrs. Buckalew, of Pennsylvania; Cowan, of Pennsylvania; Davis, of Kentucky; Eane, of Kansas; Hendricks, of Indiana; Johnson, of Maryland; McDougal, of California; Nesmith, of Oregon; Norton, of Minnesota; Doollittle, of Wisconsin; Guthrie, of Kentucky; Riddle, of Delaware; Saulsbury, of Delaware; Van Winkle, of West Virginia; Wright, of New Jersey—15. Absent, Mr. Dixon, of Connecticut.

The President sent a message to Congress to-day, recommending a modification of the test oath.

Secretary McCulloch and Postmaster General Dennison also sent communications to the Senate, asking such modifications as will enable them to appoint persons in the South. They say several persons are now acting under appointment who cannot take the oath, and therefore no salaries are paid them.

WARD'S THEATRICAL TROUPE—This company have gone to Blackfoot by way of Idaho. They contemplate playing on the route. During their short stay in this city, they gave excellent satisfaction and have gone from us with the best wishes of those whose honest opinions do not prevent them from encouraging theatricals. Mrs. Phelps as a lady and an actress is deserving of success; she labors so to live that true womanhood need not be disgraced, and to so act that the theatre going public may get an equivalent for their money.

POLES, swings, ladders, and other conveniences are being erected at the public school in this city, which will afford a portion of the scholars the best kind of healthy recreation.
