

Daily Mountaineer.

THURSDAY MORNING, APRIL 12, 1866.

In another column of today's issue will be found the Exhibit of the state of the Finances of our City.

ANNIVERSARY.—Monday last, the 9th inst., was celebrated in San Francisco, as the anniversary of the surrender of Gen. Lee to Gen. Grant.

AUCTION.—John Williams will sell at the corner of Court and Washington streets, at ten o'clock, A. M., to day, the best assortment of furniture ever offered in this city. This is the best opportunity of the season to buy good and cheap furniture.

FROM CANYON CITY—The Express arrived yesterday from Canyon City, having left the stage at Muddy, where it was delayed for want of horses. The horses are supposed to be stolen by Indians. The roads are represented as being in an almost impassable condition from mud, and the steams are all high.

INDIAN FIGHT.—On last Friday night a small party of Snake Indians visited the ranch on Cottonwood and stole a cow. The next day they were pursued by three or four white men and one Indian boy, who resides at the Cottonwood House. The Snakes finding themselves pursued went into ambush and fired on the party as it passed, wounding one of the white men in the ankle and the Indian boy in the hip. The whites then opened a brisk fire with Henry rifles, which made the Snakes skeddaddle in double quick time.

MILITARY MOVEMENTS.—Capt. Gillis advertises in another column for transportation sufficient to bring in Capt. Lafollett's Co. A, 1st Oregon Infantry, from Camp Polk to this place. Capt. Lafollett goes to Fort Yamhill, and is not to be mustered out just now as was at first reported.

Capt. Borland's Company is now in quarters at Fort Dalles, and expects to be mustered out next Saturday.

Col. Coppinger, with his Company, A, 14th U. S. Infantry, as previously stated, goes to Boise; they expect to be able to start about Saturday or Monday next; they will go as far as Umatilla by water. This movement will leave Fort Dalles without any troops.

Col. Sinclair, 14th U. S. Infantry, is expected daily from Vancouver with a detachment of about forty-five recruits of that regiment. He goes to Camp Curry, by way of Camp Watson.

Camp Curry and Camp Wright are to be broken up, and the commands there now will proceed to Boise to join Maj. Marshall's expedition against the Snakes. We do not know, but we presume this arrangement does not include Capt. Williams, Co. H of the 1st Oregon Infantry, as we had been informed that all volunteers would be mustered out as soon as they could be reached and relieved.

Major Marshall's expedition promises to be a grand affair, and we hope it will accomplish much good. We should like to suggest that if any cavalry be sent him, that they be sent over the Canyon City Road.

STRUCK IT.—The Herald of yesterday had an idea, and afraid that it would lose it, belched forth on the independent style of the MOUNTAINEER. It says that we attempt to convey the impression that this paper is not a party paper; that it is independent, and asks, "why it rejoiced over the late election at the Dalles?" The MOUNTAINEER rejoiced over the defeat of a few political demagogues, who brought forth a strict party ticket in opposition to the will of the people, and will ever rejoice at such defeats in our municipal elections. The Herald again quotes the MOUNTAINEER of the 8th inst., and asks, "why did its editor in speaking of the Democratic nominees say there was but one man on the ticket who has not rendered himself obnoxious to all good men by his treacherable efforts to paralyze the strength of our people, in order that secession might succeed?" Because the editor of the MOUNTAINEER had good reason to know such to be the case, and knowing it, did not hesitate to make it public. We stated these things that the people may be better able to judge for themselves who they can trust to act as their servants, and not like the Herald endeavor to hoodwink the voters of this State. Again listen to the Herald: "The truth is, the MOUNTAINEER, under cover of neutrality, is working for the radical party." Why, you goose, you ought to know that the MOUNTAINEER does not profess to be neutral, it is independent. And those who read it know that it is not and never was a supporter of the radicals. But the warning of the Herald to Democrats not to patronize the MOUNTAINEER is the best joke of the season. Hear it: "We warn Democrats that when they patronize it they draw a knife across their own throats. They take to their bosoms a viper which, when they shall have warmed it into life, will sting them with its poisonous fangs." You ninny-hammer! The MOUNTAINEER had life before such sickly institutions as yours came into existence, and will live when you are numbered among the many overgrown concerns that have passed away in Portland. Already you begin to smell bad, and the hand of death is visible on your every page. If the Democracy of this State want to have a daily paper published in Portland, we warn them that unless they procure some person with more brains than the present concern has, that before the pending canvass is over they will be without an organ in that city.

SPEAKER COLFAX'S LECTURE.—The correspondent of the Union from New York, writes that "Schuyler Colfax's lecture on the Overland Journey is the popular entertainment of the winter. He has given it twice, a few weeks apart in New York, to audiences which bubbled over the brim of the immense Cooper Institute, and filtered into the anterooms, and even into the streets. He has declined over hundred and seventy-three invitations to enlighten with it the people of cities, and hamlets, from Maine to Iowa, and New York to Virginia. One wonders if his gavel, so fills his honest hand that he can refuse without a sigh to open that white palm for $20,000. The sum has a comfortable sound."
