

IDAHO.—In addition to the items given in yesterday's issue, we compile from the Statesman of the 2d inst., the following:

Capt. Eckerson, A. Q. M., U. S. A., had arrived and assumed his duties at Fort Boise. Capt. W. I. Sanborn had also been at the fort on an inspecting tour.

On the 1st April, the hills about Boise were covered with snow, and from every direction accounts of high water and bad roads were received.

About thirty of the oldest and best citizens of Boise were preparing to go to Montana. The Statesman predicts their speedy return.

Mr. Chas. La Baume, of Rocky Bar, claims the invention of a new method for the disintegration of quartz. The process is kept a secret, as a patent is to be applied for. Parties who ought to know are perfectly enthusiastic in its praise. Mr. La Baume is a practical chemist, and was engaged as such before he came to any mining country. It would be strange if, of the many claimed discoveries of this character, none of them prove to be more efficient and economical than the stamp and amalgamating process.

At Idaho City the miners are getting fairly to work and have generally realized beyond their expectations. Baily & Co., on "Bonham Hill," cleaned up in sixty hours run over $1,900. And the disposition which had been manifested to try other camps, had entirely abated.

From Owyhee, the Statesman has the following items:

Coal has really been found on Reynolds's Creek, about one mile below Babbington's. We have witnessed the burning of a specimen by a blacksmith, who believes it to be coal—or genuine croppings. It ignites freely, and is not consumed in a moment. It will produce sufficient heat to melt iron. Mr. Babbington has used it in an ordinary stove by the aid of a little wood for kindling. The vein was discovered some months ago, but for good reasons was not made public. The current of water exposed a vein of four inches, and the work already done shows one of twelve inches.

On the night of the 21st ult., the Indians stole fifteen head of work cattle and two horses in Jordan Valley, from Lewis' Ranch. Ten head of the cattle belonged to Messrs. Bloom & Herd, Silver City—and were worth fully twelve hundred dollars. Three citizens and two soldiers pursued the thieves until their horses gave out—but without retaking the stock.

Excepting the Morning Star, the mills have all suspended operations. Some for want of quartz either at mine or mill, and others on account of the impassable condition of the roads. However, preparations are being made to start all of them at an early day.

The Oregonian thinks that the recent mining news from Victoria is but the desperate effort of that city, and of interests which centre there, to get another big rush that way; and that if the rumors be true, the only way to go to Suswap and Big Bend is up the Columbia river. We concur.

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.—Below we publish the resolutions of Blue Mountain Lodge, No. 11, I. O. O. F., on the death of Bro. N. C. Mayhew. These should have reached us before, but the first copy was lost at the time of the loss of the express in the South Fork of the John Day river:

WHEREAS, In the dispensation of Divine Providence this Lodge has been called to mourn the loss, by death, of Brother N. C. Mayhew, R. W. Grand Deputy Master of the I. O. O. F. of Oregon, who departed this life after a protracted illness in Dalles City, Oregon, on the 7th day of March, 1866, therefore be it

Resolved, That this Lodge has heard with deep and painful regret of the death of Deputy Grand Master, Bro. N. C. Mayhew of Columbia Lodge, No. 5, I. O. O. F. of Oregon, and deeply mourn the loss of a good and faithful Odd Fellow.

Resolved, That we will ever cherish the memory of his many virtues, devoutly trusting that his well spent life is rewarded by admission into the Celestial Lodge above, where Friendship, Love and Truth ever abide.

Resolved, That to give expression to our sorrow at the untimely death of our brother, and to mark our sense of his exalted worth, these resolutions, enclosed in black lines, be spread upon the Journal of this Lodge, and be printed in the New Age published in San Francisco, and the Dalles MOUNTAINEER published in Dalles City.

Resolved, That to express our sympathy with the brethren of the Lodge of which he was a worthy member, a copy of these resolutions be sent to Columbia Lodge, No. 5.

Resolved, That the members of this Lodge wear the usual badge of mourning for thirty days, and their hall be draped in mourning as a further token of their esteem and appreciation of his worth.

A SPECIAL telegram to the Herald announces the passage of the Civil Rights Bill, over the President's veto, by a vote of 122 to 18.

We do not like the political aspect of affairs at Washington. This war between Congress and the Executive bodes no good to the nation. We would not be at all surprised to hear, almost any day, that a collision, of an entirely different character, had occurred between Congress and the President. But let us hope for the best.—Portland Herald.

Bah! We do not know what are the provisions of the Civil Rights Bill in its entirety, but we do know that it has become a law by the action of the properly constituted law making power, and we believe that it will be enforced despite the covert threats of those who dislike it. The American people are not going to be frightened out of doing as their convictions urge them to do. "But let us all hope for the best." What a contemptible insinuation in the face of our history for the last four years.

HIT HIM AGAIN.—The Red Bluff Independent shows up some of the boasted "intelligence" of California, in the following paragraph:

"Late dispatches from Washington inform us that another Reeside has entered into competition for the Oregon mail and has been successful. To give an idea of the mail matter at this season we will instance one little town, Olympia, at the mouth of the Columbia river, which has about one hundred and fifty inhabitants, and to which there has been sent during the past week fourteen sacks of public documents, each weighing about one hundred and fifty pounds! The new contractor will find out something when he comes to enquire into it."

The Jacksonville Sentinel replied by saying: "You mistake; it is not Reeside, but H. W. Corbett, of Portland, Oregon. He has been there for twelve or fifteen years—knows the country, climate, and amount of mail matter, and counts his dollars by thousands. We claim to possess a little capital and enterprise in this State. Again, you fellows had better study geography a little until you find that Olympia is not within a hundred miles of the mouth of the Columbia river, but is the Capital of Washington Territory.

Not So.—A rumor was circulated in town yesterday to the effect that Mr. Snipes, who left the Dalles some time since for Blackfoot, by way of White Bluffs, had been attacked by Indians, and lost considerable of his stock. After making diligent inquiry, we are of opinion that there is no foundation for this report, and that it originated with parties whose interests are to injure the reputation which the White Bluffs route is acquiring.

DENTAL NOTICE.—Being about to make a professional tour to the towns and settlements up the Columbia, I respectfully call the attention of those of my patrons who are in need of Dental Operations of any character, to the fact, so that they may have an opportunity to avail themselves of my services before my departure, if so desired. I will leave about the 20th of March, and return to this place to resume my practice, about the 18th of June. [5714] J. W. GURLEY.
