Full statistics of whiskey manufacture in Illinois are given by the Chicago Repubican, with the object of showing that the present rate of taxation operates as a prohibition rather than a source of revenue, a large proportion of the distilleriec having remained idle since the $2 rate was imposed.

THRILLING ADVENURE .- A traveling agent for a large publishing house in Cincinnati, says a paper of that city, pat up at a country hotel recently, and, sa was his custom, before going to bed, he first counted his money-a large sum-then untied his shoes, managing while engaged in the latter occupatians to look under the bed. To his horror he saw what appeared to be a monster of the human species peeing out from the rear of some bandboxes, and the tought that he was to be mur dered and robbed instantly seized him. Drawing his revolver, he challenged the supposed antagonist to appear, but received no answer. He discharged bis pistol, and immediately the landlord and boarders rushed into the room to ascertain the cause of such unsual proceedings. After hear the story of the affrighted agent, the landlord cooly proceeded to draw from beneath the bed a bronze best of Daniel Webster with a bullet hole tkrough the forehead, and the entire party then went down stairs to the bar to take a "night cap" at the expense of the teaveling agent.
